Introduction

Hypermedia and the World Wide Web

Guest Editor: Helen Ashman

Augmenting the Web through open hypermedia

Niels olaf Bouvin

XlinkProxy: external linkbases with Xlink (Technical Note)

Poalo ciancarini, Federico Folli, Dvide Rossi and Fabio Vitali

Scalable web page entanglement

Jason Rohrer

Using Maps and landmarks for navigation between closed and open corpus hyperspace in Web-based education

Peter Brusilovsky and Riccardo Rizzo

User modelling, and adaptive hypermedia frameworks for education (Technical note)

Mohamed Ramzy Zakaria and Tim Brailsford

Modelling personalisable hypermedia: The Goldsmiths Model

James Ohene-Djan and Alvaro A. A. Fernandez

XConnector and XTemplate: improving the expressiveness and reuse in web authoring languages

Débora Christina Muchaluat-Saade and Liz Fernando Gomes Soares

Searching the hypermedia Web: improved topic distillation through network analytic relevance ranking

Behnak Yaltaghian and Mark Chignell

Web hypermedia cost estimation: further assessment and comparison of cost estimation modelling techniques

Emilia mendes, Steve Counsell and Nile Mosley

From information retrieval to hypertext linking

P.J. Brown

View contents of Volume 7 2001

Digital Libraries

Denotative and connotative semantics in hypermedia: proposal for a semiotic-aware architecture

Frank Nack and Lynda Hardman

The role of high-level and low-level features in style-based retrieval and generation of multimedia presentations

Frank Nack, Menzo Windhouwer, Lynda Hardman, Eric Pauwels and Michèle Huijberts

Faceted classification as a basis for knowledge organisation in a digital environment: the Bliss Bibliographic Classification as a model for vocabulary management and the creation of multidimensional knowledge structures

Vanda Broughton

A prototype multilingual document browser for Ancient Greek texts (Technical note)

Geoff Rydberg-Cox

Design and architecture of a digital music library on the web (Technical note)

John Papadakis and Christos Douligeris

GeoWorlds: integrating GIS and digital libraries for situation understanding and management

Robert Neches, Ke-thia Yao, Alejandro Bugacov, Vished Kumar and Ragy Eleish

Finding hyper-structure in space: spatial parsing in 3D

Michael Bang Nielsen and Peter Ørbæk

Using hypermedia in requirements engineering practice

Hermann Kaindl

View contents of Volume 6 2000

The button strikes back

Wendy Hall

Trailblazing: trends in hypermedia

Daniel Cunliffe

Time-based Hypermedia

Guest Editor: Lynda Hardman

Media construction formalism specifying abstractions for multimedia scenario design

Jocelyne Nanard, Marc Nanard and Peter King

The link vs. the event: activating and deactivating elements in time-based hypermedia

Lynda Hardman, Patrick Schmitz, Jacco van Ossenbruggen, Warner ten Kate and Lloyd Rutledge

Hybrid narrative and categorical strategies for interactive and dynamic video presentation generation

Craig A. Lindley and Frank Nack

Navigable history: a reader's view of writer's time

Frank M. Shipman III and Haowei Hsieh

Spatial Hypermedia

Guest Editors: Frank Shipman and Chaomei Chen

Hypertext interactivity: from choice to participation

Gene Golovchinsky and Catherine C. Marshall

Mind the eye! On the relevance of composition in spatial organisation

Moritz Neümuller

View contents of Volume 5 1999

Hypermedia Design and Development

Guest Editor: David Lowe

Towards a hypertext design methodology for end-users

Bob Kemp and Kathy Buckner

A design method for effective information delivery in multimedia presentations

A.G. Sutcliffe

Integrating patterns into the hypermedia development process

Gustavo Rossi, Daniel Schwabe and Fernando Lyardet

Assessing the quality of academic websites: a case study

Luis Olsina, Daniela Godoy, Guillermo Lafuente and Gustavo Rossi

Applying measurement principles to improve hypermedia authoring

M. Emilia X. Mendes, Wendy Hall and Rachel Harrison

Utilisation of process modeling in improving the hypermedia design process

David Lowe and Richard Webby

Open Hypermedia Systems

Guest Editor: Kaj Gronbaek

Issues of data scalability in open hypermedia systems

Kenneth M. Anderson

A component-based open hypermedia approach to integrating structure services

Peter J. Nurnberg, Kaj Gronbaek, Dirk Bucka-Lassen, Claus Agarrd Pedersen and Olav Reinert

Addressing interoperability in open hypermedia design: the design of the open hypermedia protocol

Siegfried Reich, Uffe K. Wiil, Peter J. Nurnberg, Hugh C. Davis, Kaj Gronbaek, Kenneth M. Anderson, David E. Millard and Jorg M. Haake

View contents of Volume 4 1998

Adaptivity and user modelling in hypermedia systems

Guest Editors: Peter Brusilovsky and Maria Milosavljevic

Hypermedia for museums and cultural heritage

Editors: Douglas Tudhope and Daniel Cunliffe

Conversation in the museum: experiments in dynamic hypermedia with the intelligent labelling explorer

Jon Oberlander, Mick O'Donnell, Chris Mellish and Alistair Knott

Hypernavigation in the physical space: adapting presentations to the user and to the situational context

(Technical Note)

Elena Not, Daniela Petrelli, Marcello Sarini, Olivieri Stock, Carlo Strapparava and Massimo Zancanaro

Con-textual navigation support

Sabine Geldof

The dynamic generation of hypertext presentations of medical guidelines

Berardina De Carolis, Fiorella de Rosis, Chiara Andreoli, Vincenzo Cavallo and M. Luisa De Cicco

Toward an adaptive WWW: a case study in customised hypermedia

Kathryn F. Gates, Pamela B. Lawhead and Dawn E. Wilkins

AHA! An open Adaptive Hypermedia Architecture

Paul DE Bra and Licia Calvi

ACE - Adaptive Courseware Environment

Marcus Specht and Reinhard Oppermann

Adaptable and adaptive information provision for all users, including disabled and elderly people

Josef Fink, Alfred Kobsa and Andreas Nill

A system to restructure hypertext networks into valid user models

Johan Bollen and Francis Heylighen

On the subject of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), including copyright - a help and a hindrance to cultural heritage?

Jeremy Rees

Aquarelle to Z39.50: the A to Z of access to cultural heritage information (Technical Note)

David Dawson

SCRAN and its users (Technical Note)

Ian O. Morrison

View contents of Volume 3 1997

Evaluating multimedia presentations

Peter Faraday and Alistair Sutcliffe

A systematic method for hypermedia usability evaluation

F. Garzotto and M. Matera

Spatial ability and visual navigation: an empirical study

Chaomei Chen and Mary Czerwinski

'It's the journey and the destination': shape and the emergent property of genre in evaluating digital documents

Andrew Dillon and Misha Vaughan

New IR - new evaluation: the impact of interaction and multimedia on information retrieval and its evaluation

Stephen W. Draper and Mark D. Dunlop

Formal experiments in casual attire: case studies in information exploration

Gene Golovchinsky, Mark Chignell and Nipon Charoenkitkarn

Usability and assessments of multimodal interaction in the SPEAK! system: an experimental case study

Adelheit Stein

The image retrieval task: implications for the design and evaluation of image databases

Raya Fidel

A method for the automatic indexing of colour images for effective image retrieval

I. Gagliardi and R. Schettini

Integrating hypermedia functionality into expert systems

Vatcharaporn Esichaikul and Saravut Maolanon

View contents of Volume 2 1996

Extending the multimedia class hierarchy for hypermedia applications

Carolyn Watters

Multimedia information using mobile computers: accessing the digital campus and the digital library

Peter J. Thomas, John F. Meech and Jane Williams

A framework for extending object-oriented applications with hypermedia functionality

Alejandro Garrido and Gustavo Rossi

Hypermedia and engineering design

John D. Gilleard and Y.C. Lee

Electronic access to social survey documentation texts

Bridget Winstanley

Providing public access to information in complex and weakly structured domains: a 3-layered model for hypermedia information systems

Mile Bearne, Sara Jones, Jill Hewitt and John Sapsford-Francis

The h-journal: a tool to support information work

Anita Sundaram

The democratic indexing of images

Pauline Brown, Rob Hilderley, Hugh Griffin and Sarah Rollason

Library and study skills using hypertext: the TILT experience

Linda Creanor, Helen Durdell and Carol Primrose

Using a hypertext for semi-formal representation in requirements engineering practice

Hermann Kaindl

Designing hypermedia information retrieval systems for multimedia art catalogues

P. Carrara, A. Della Ventura and I. Gagliardi

View contents of Volume 1 1995

Hypertext, multimedia and hypermedia

Roy Rada

Experiments on the automatic construction of hypertexts from texts

Alan F. Smeaton and Patrick J. Morrissey

Automatic generation and refinement of hypertext links

Tat-Seng Chua and Chui-Har Chow

Developing hybrid intelligent tutoring and hypertext systems

Marios C. Angelides

A new probabilistic scheme for information retrieval in hypertext

Jacques Savoy

'Don't forget to put the cat out' - or why collaborative authoring software and everyday writing pass one another by!

Andrew Dillon and Sally Maynard

The electronic business card: an experiment in half-dead hypertext

Jakob Nielsen

Navigational behaviors in hypermedia documents in music

William L. Berz

Video-based hypermedia: guiding design with user's questions

Blair Nonnecke, Richard Jacques, Diane McKerlie and Jenny Preece

Evaluating interactive multimedia products for the home

Mark Gillham, Bob Kemp and Kathy Buckner

The development of a sound viewer for an open hypermedia system

Stuart Goose and Wendy Hall

The Micro Gallery: an evaluation of the hypertext system in The National Gallery, London

Micheline Beaulieu and Victoria Mellor
