

At a recent meeting of the Executive Editors it was agreed to introduce the 2 following innovations into the journal.

LETTERS

We now want to provide the opportunity for disabled people and their allies to write letters to the journal on any issue(s), suggestions or concerns. We hope that this will encourage a good response. The letters need to be a maximum of 500 words. Please include the name of the author and contact email. Forward them to Helen Oliver, School of Education, University of Sheffield, 388 Glossop Road, Sheffield S10 2JA, UK

Email: h.j.oliver@sheffield.ac.uk

We will include this call for the letters in forthcoming issues of the journal.

Looking forward to the responses.

DOCTORAL THESES

We have agreed to provide within the journal a list of completed theses in the field of Disability Studies. This will be an important resource for readers to follow through as well as provide the names of colleagues who are new entrants to the discipline.

This is an open invitation starting with theses completed from 2000. We would like the following information:

The name of the author;
The title of the thesis;
The university awarding the degree;
A 100 word synopsis of the thesis;
An email contact number.

Please forward these to Helen Oliver, School of Education, University of Sheffield, 388 Glossop Road, Sheffield S10 2JA, UK

Email: h.j.oliver@sheffield.ac.uk

We will include this call for the above information in forthcoming issues of the journal.

Looking forward to the responses.
