

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS (www.tandf.no/ijpcp)

SCOPE AND POLICY

International Journal of Psychiatry in Clinical Practice (IJPCP) is a high quality quarterly journal targeted primarily at clinical psychiatrists working in hospital environments as well as in private practice. Particular emphasis is placed on the interface between important new treatments stemming from advanced scientific research and their clinical applications. In addition, the journal aims to reflect all the issues at the forefront of current debate:

- Original research reports
- Short reports
- Reviews of treatment studies
- Analyses of pharmacoeconomic issues
- Commentaries
- Interviews and debates

Original reports and reviews can be up to 7500 words in length. Please contact the Editors to discuss the suitability of topics. Reports should be approximately 1500 words with 2–3 tables or figures. Commentaries or other material falling outside the usual categories, can be up to 2500 words. All the papers will be peer-reviewed and also edited to ensure clarity and accuracy of English.

Articles are considered for publication on the understanding that neither the article nor its essential substance has been, or will be, published elsewhere before appearing in IJPCP. Abstracts and press reports published in connection with scientific meetings are not considered to be publications.

SUBMISSION OF PAPERS

IJPCP's Manuscript Central, web-based manuscript submission and handling system, is now available. Please submit all manuscripts online via the Journal's Manuscript Central site that is accessible via online submission link on the Journal's home page: www.tandf.no/ijpcp.

Click on "online submission" which directs you to Manuscript Central's log in page. Here either create an account or enter an existing account to log in your "author center" to upload manuscript files.

The receipt of the manuscript will be acknowledged by an e-mail which includes a manuscript ID number. The manuscript ID number should be quoted in all correspondence with the Editors and the Editorial Offices.

If you have difficulties in submitting your manuscript electronically, contact site administrators via "Get Help Now" on upper right corner of any screen. You can also contact editorial office via e-mail: ijpcp@tandf.no

MANUSCRIPT SPECIFICATIONS

Manuscript pages should be numbered and heading hierarchy should be clearly differentiated. The number of heading levels used should be kept to a maximum of three. All manuscript text files should be uploaded as MS Word document files.

- Title page: detailing the full names, affiliations and addresses of all the contributors, e-mail, telephone and fax numbers for the corresponding (main) author. A running title of not more than 50 characters (including spaces) should be supplied. Please ensure that contact address information, including telephone and fax numbers as well as e-mail address, are included on the title page.
- Abstract: this should not exceed 200 words. Original research papers should have abstracts structured using the following sub-headings: Objective, Methods, Results, Conclusion.
- Key points: up to five key points should be provided. These should be short sentences that highlight the paper's most important information.
- Key words: five key words as derived from Index Medicus should be supplied for indexing purposes.
- Introduction
- Methods
- Results
- Discussion
- Acknowledgements
- Statement of interest
- References
- Tables
- Figure Legends
- Figures: should be uploaded separately and in .tif or .eps format only, with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi.
- Measurements: should be given in SI units, although older conventional units can also be included in parentheses
- Abbreviations: except for units of measurement, these should be spelled out on first use and should be standard
- Drug names: should be generic, although brand names can be added in parentheses where appropriate

TABLES

Please supply tables on separate pages and number them consecutively with Arabic numerals; they should include a brief descriptive caption.

ILLUSTRATIONS

All illustrations should be uploaded as TIFF or high resolution (min.300 dpi) JPEG format. All illustrations (including line drawings and photographs) should be referred to in the text as 'Figure 1', 'Figures 1–4', using Arabic numbers. Each figure must be cited in the text. Each illustration should be accompanied by a legend describing it clearly, and all legends should be grouped together at the end of the main text file.

Line drawings: These should be also uploaded as electronic files (in .tif or .eps format only, with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi), and should be about 1¹/₂ times the intended final size. Lettering should be uniform and minimal, and lines should be of sufficient thickness to stand reduction.

Photographs and photomicrographs: These should be submitted in the same format as mentioned above. The magnification should be indicated by a bar on the photograph.

Colour: Two-colour illustrations will be accepted when deemed necessary by the Editors.

REFERENCES

Authors are responsible for the accuracy of the references. Articles 'in press' may be included, but must state the journal that has accepted them. Personal communications should be avoided. References should follow the Vancouver system: in the text each reference is cited by a number in square brackets, starting at [1]. At the end of the paper they should be listed (double-spaced) in numerical order in square brackets, corresponding to the order of citation in the text. If there are more than six authors, list the first six authors and use 'et al.' Journal titles should be abbreviated according to the current edition of Index Medicus (available at: www.icmje.org).

STATEMENT OF INTEREST

Authors are requested to disclose any commercial or other associations that might pose a conflict of interest in connection with the submitted article. All funding sources supporting the work, and institutional and corporate affiliations of the authors must be acknowledged on the title page. Conflict of interest form should also be signed, scanned and uploaded together with your article files. If you do not have any conflict of interest please state it on the title page.

COPYRIGHT

It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or licence the publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to Taylor & Francis. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication without prior permission from Taylor & Francis, provided that acknowledgement is given to the Journal as the original source of publication, and that Taylor & Francis is notified so that our records show that its use is properly authorised. Authors retain a number of other rights under the Taylor & Francis rights policies documents. These policies are referred to at:

<http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals/authorrights.pdf>

for full details. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.

PERMISSIONS

Please ensure that material copied from other sources is accompanied by clear written statements from both the author and publisher giving permission to IJPCP for reproduction. Obtain permission in writing from at least one author of papers still in press, of unpublished data and of personal communications. It is the author's responsibility to ensure that permissions are obtained.

PROOFS AND OFFPRINTS

One set of proofs will be sent to the named author at the 'correspondence e-mail address' unless otherwise requested. The corrected proofs must be returned to the publisher within 3 days. Excessive alterations (over 10%) to proofs may be charged to the author.

Offprints may be ordered using the form accompanying the proofs.
