

INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

Aims and Scope: Visual Impairment Research is a new journal addressing all aspects of visual impairment. Its aim is to provide a multidisciplinary forum for all aspects of research on visual impairment, made up of perceptual psychology, ophthalmology, optometry, gerontology, rehabilitation service delivery, psychophysics, device research and development, visual function epidemiology, cognitive science, social work, and special education.

Accordingly, manuscripts are welcome on a broad range of topics, including clinical and visual function, psychophysical studies, vision rehabilitation interventions, epidemiology, assessment and outcome studies. Also solicited are article of general interest that may have significance for global vision rehabilitation and research communities.

Submission of Manuscripts. Address manuscripts to the either Aart Kooijman, Editor-In-Chief, Laboratory of Experimental Ophthalmology (LEO), Groningen Graduate School for Behavioral and Cognitive Neurosciences, P. O. Box 30001, 9700 RB Groningen, The Netherlands. Tel: +31-50-361-2165, Fax: +31-50-361-1636, E-mail: j.video@ohk.azg.nl; or Aries Ardit, Editor-In-Chief, Arlene R. Gordon Research Institute, Lighthouse International, 111 East 59th Street, New York, NY 10022. Tel: 212-821-9500, Fax: +1-212-751-9667, Email: aarditi@lighthouse.org.

Authors are strongly encouraged to submit manuscripts per email. Otherwise the manuscript can be submitted on disk using MS Word or WordPerfect and should be clearly labeled with the authors' names, file name, and software program. Each manuscript must be accompanied by a statement that it has not been published elsewhere and that it has not been submitted simultaneously for publication elsewhere. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyrighted material from other sources and are required to sign an agreement for the transfer of copyright to the publisher. All accepted manuscripts, artwork, and photographs become the property of the publisher.

All parts of the manuscript should be typewritten, double-spaced, with margins of at least one inch on all sides. Number manuscript pages consecutively throughout the paper. Authors should also supply a shortened version of the title suitable for the running head, not exceeding 50 character spaces. Each article should be summarized in an abstract of not more than 250 words. Avoid abbreviations, diagrams, and reference to the text in the abstract.

References. References should be provided according to the Vancouver rules (references should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are first mentioned in the text).

Journal: Harry J, Ashton N. The pathology of tumours of the lacrimal sac. Trans Ophthalmol Soc UK. 1968;88:19–35.

Chapter in a Book: Weinstein L, Swartz MN. Pathologic properties of invading microorganisms. In: Sodeman WA Jr, Sodeman WA, editors. Pathologic Physiology, Mechanisms of Disease. Philadelphia: Saunders, 1974; 457–478.

Only references published in generally available journals or books will be accepted. References which have not been accepted for publication cannot be included in the reference list and should be placed within the text of the manuscripts and denoted as 'manuscripts in preparation,' 'unpublished observations' or 'personal communication.'

Illustrations. Illustrations submitted (line drawings, halftones, photos, photomicrographs, etc.) should be clean originals or digital files. Digital files are recommended for highest quality reproduction and should follow these guidelines:

- 300 dpi or higher
- Sized to fit on journal page
- EPS, TIFF, or PSD format only
- Submitted as separate files, not embedded in text files

Color illustrations will be considered for publication; however, the author will be required to bear the full cost involved in their printing and publication. The charge for the first page with color is $900.00. The next three pages with color are $450.00 each. A custom quote will be provided for color art totaling more than 4 journal pages. Good-quality color prints should be provided in their final size. The publisher has the right to refuse publication of color prints deemed unacceptable.

Tables and Figures. Tables and figures (illustrations) should not be embedded in the text, but should be included as separate sheets or files. A short descriptive title should appear above each table with a clear legend and any footnotes suitably identified below. All units must be included. Figures should be completely labeled, taking into account necessary size reduction. Captions should be typed, double-spaced, on a separate sheet. All original figures should be clearly marked in pencil on the reverse side with the number, author's name, and top edge indicated.

Proofs. Page proofs are sent to the designated author using Taylor & Francis' EProof system. They must be carefully checked and returned within 48 hours of receipt.

Offprints/Reprints. The corresponding author of each article will receive one complete copy of the issue in which the article appears. Offprints of an individual article may be ordered from Taylor & Francis. Use the offprint order form included with page proofs. Up to 10 additional issue copies may also be ordered. If offprints are not ordered by the required date, reprint pricing goes into effect, and issue copies may not be ordered.
