

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Journalism Studies accepts original articles which are not under consideration by another publication at the time of submission. Articles should not exceed 8000 words in length, should be free from jargon and should be written as clearly and concisely as possible. Unsolicited articles cannot be returned. Accepted articles must conform to Journalism Studies style requirements.

Please submit articles to Bob Franklin, The Editor, Journalism Studies, The Cardiff School of Journalism, Media and Cultural Studies, Cardiff University, Bute Building, King Edward VII Avenue, Cardiff CF10 3NB, UK; E-mail: JournalismStudies@UK2.net.

Submissions. Journalism Studies accepts submissions by e-mail. Where possible, the file should be saved in the 'Word for Windows' format. If this is not possible then the document should be saved in either a 'Text' or 'ASCII' format. Whichever is used please indicate this clearly. If e-mail is used then documents should be sent unencoded to JournalismStudies@UK2.net. A delivery confirmation will be sent on receipt of the e-mail. Alternatively authors may submit four typed copies of their manuscript along with a copy of the manuscript saved onto a CD.

Presentation. Manuscripts should be double-spaced throughout (including all quotations and footnotes) and typed in English on single sides of paper. Generous margins on both sides of the page should be allowed for and pages numbered consecutively. The author should retain a copy as submitted manuscripts cannot be returned. Full names of the author(s) should be given, a full address for correspondence, and where possible a contact telephone number, facsimile number and e-mail address. Current and recent academic and professional affiliations should be supplied for inclusion in 'Notes on Contributors', together with a list of major publications (with dates and name of publisher) and forthcoming books.

References should conform to the Harvard style and be indicated in the typescript by giving the author's name with the year of publication in parentheses. If several papers by the same author and from the same year are cited, a,b,c, etc. should be placed after the year of publication. References should be listed in full alphabetically, with the least recent first where more than one work by the same author is cited, at the end of the article in the following standard form:

For books: MACHIN, DAVID and NIBLOCK, SARAH (2006) News Production: Theory and Practice, London: Routledge.

For articles: SUDGEN, JOHN and TOMILSON, ALAN (2007) "Stories from Planet Football and Sportsworld: Source relations and collusion in sport journalism", Journalism Practice 1(1), pp. 44–61.

Tables and figures should be prepared on separate sheets using originals where possible; they should not be included within the text. The author(s) should indicate clearly in the margin of the paper where tables and figures are to be inserted. Each table and figure should be numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals with an appropriate caption (e.g. Table 1, Table 2; Figure 1, Figure 2, and so on). Permission to reproduce copyright material must be obtained by the author(s) prior to submission and any acknowledgements should be included either in the text or the caption as appropriate.

For a more comprehensive profile of how to prepare your manuscripts for publication in Journalism Studies, please write to the Editors requesting an information sheet.

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or licence the publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to Taylor & Francis. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication without prior permission from Taylor & Francis, provided that acknowledgement is given to the Journal as the original source of publication, and that Taylor & Francis is notified so that our records show that its use is properly authorised. Authors retain a number of other rights under the Taylor & Francis rights policies documents. These policies are referred to at <http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals/authorrightrights.pdf> for full details. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources. Taylor & Francis makes every effort to ensure the accuracy of all the information (the "Content") contained in its publications. However, Taylor & Francis and its agents and licensors make no representations or warranties whatsoever as to the accuracy, completeness or suitability for any purpose of the content and disclaim all such representations and warranties whether express or implied to the maximum extent permitted by law. Any views expressed in this publication are the views of the authors and are not the views of Taylor & Francis.
