1. PAGE CHARGES

It is a condition of publication in Food Economics that authors or their institutions agree to pay page charges. The page charge fee for Food Economics is US$ 80 per printed page. Please note that the final number of pages in print can only be calculated after the accepted article has been typeset into the journal layout format. But a rough estimate would give that 3 manuscript pages (given the recommendations in the instructions for authors) would give approximately 1 printed page in the journal, excluding tables and figures.
