APA (American Psychological Association) references are used in the social sciences, education, engineering and business. For detailed information, please see the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th edn (sections containing changes from the previous edition are highlighted in yellow). See also http://www.doi.org for information about DOIs.

EndNote for Windows and Macintosh is a valuable all-in-one tool used by researchers, scholarly writers, and students to search online bibliographic databases, organize their references, and create bibliographies instantly. There is now an EndNote output style available if you have access to the software in your library (please visit http://www.endnote.com/support/enstyles.asp and look for TF-A APA).

How to cite references in your text

References are cited in the text in alphabetical order (the same way they appear in the reference list), separated by a semi-colon. References to classical works such as the Bible and the Qur’an and personal communications are cited only in the text.

(Green, 2002; Harlow, 1983)
If you have two authors with the same last name, use first initials with the last names.

(E. Johnson, 2001; L. Johnson, 1998)

A work by two authors

Name both authors in the signal phrase or in the parentheses each time you cite the work. Use the word ‘and’ between the authors’ names within the text and use ‘&’ in the parentheses.

Research by Wegener and Petty (1994) showed...

(Wegener & Petty, 1994)

A work by three to five authors

List all the authors in the signal phrase or in parentheses the first time you cite the source.

(Kernis, Cornell, Sun, Berry, & Harlow, 1993)

In subsequent citations, only use the first author’s last name followed by et al. in the signal phrase or in parentheses.

(Kernis et al., 1993)

If two or more references of more than three surnames with the same year shorten to the same form, cite the surnames of the first authors and of as many of the subsequent authors as are needed to distinguish the references, followed by a comma and et al.

Kernis, Cornell, Sun, et al. (1993)

Six or more authors

Use the first author’s name followed by et al. in the signal phrase or in parentheses.

Harris et al. (2001) argued...

(Harris et al., 2001)

If two references with six or more authors shorten to the same form, cite the surnames of the first authors and of as many of the subsequent authors as are needed to distinguish the references, followed by a comma and et al.

Groups as authors

The names of groups that serve as authors (e.g. govt agencies or corporations) can be spelled out each time they appear in a text citation unless it is long or cumbersome, in which case spell it out only the first time and abbreviate it thereafter. The guiding rule is that the reader should be able to find it in the reference list easily.

First citation in text:

National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH, 2003)

First citation in text (parenthetical):
Several works by same author

If you have two sources by the same author in the same year, use lower-case letters (a, b, c) with the year to order the entries in the reference list. Use the lower-case letters with the year in the in-text citation.

Research by Green (1981a, 1981b) illustrated that...

Citing indirect sources

If you use a source that was cited in another source, name the original source in your signal phrase. List the secondary source in your reference list and include the secondary source in the parentheses.

Johnson argued that... (as cited in Smith, 2003, p. 102).

Work discussed in a secondary source

List the source the work was discussed in.

Give the secondary source in the references list. In the text, name the original work, and give a citation for the secondary source. For example, if Seidenberg and McClelland’s work is cited in Coltheart et al. and you did not read the original work, list the Coltheart et al. reference in the References. In the text, use the following citation:

In Seidenberg and McClelland’s study (as cited in Coltheart, Curtis, Atkins, & Haller, 1993), ...

2. How to organize references.

References are listed in alphabetical order.
3. Abstract.

As original source

From secondary source

Dissertation abstract

4. Archival documents.

Author, A.A. (Year, Month, Day). Title of material. [Description of material]. Name of collection (Call number, Box number, File number, etc). Name and location of repository.

Letter from a repository

Black, A. (1935, May 3). [Letter to Jane Jones]. Name of Archive (Call number, Box number, File number, etc), Location.

Letter from a private collection

Collection of letters from an archive

Black, A. (1935–1946). Correspondence. Jim Evans Papers (Call number, etc), Archive name, Location.

In the text, cite specific letters as

(Black, A., 1935–1946, Black to F. Harvard, March 11, 1939)

Unpublished papers, lectures from an archive or personal collection

Archival/historical source where author or date is not stated

Author, A.A. (Year of publication). Title of work: Capital letter also for subtitle. Location: Publisher.

Electronic version of printed book

Author, A.A. (Year of publication). Title of work: Subtitle. doi:xxxxxxxxxx

Electronic-only book

No author

If the work does not have an author, cite the source by its title in the signal phrase or use the first word or two in the parentheses. Titles of books and reports are italicized or underlined; titles of articles and chapters are in quotation marks.

To include parenthetical citations of sources with no author named, use a shortened version of the source’s title instead of an author’s name. Use quotation marks and italics as appropriate.

A similar study was done of students learning to format research papers (‘Using APA’, 2001).

In the rare case that ‘Anonymous’ is used for the author, treat it as the author’s name (Anonymous, 2001). In the reference list, use the name Anonymous as the author.

One author

Organization as author

If the author is an organization or a government agency, mention the organization in the signal phrase or in the parenthetical citation the first time you cite the source.

According to the American Psychological Association (2000),...

If the organization has a well-known abbreviation, include the abbreviation in brackets the first time the source is cited and then use only the abbreviation in later citations.

First citation:

(Mothers Against Drunk Driving [MADD], 2000)
Second citation:

(MADD, 2000)

When the author and publisher are identical, use the word Author as the name of the publisher.

Chapter in edited book

Author, A.A., & Author, B.B. (Year of publication). Title of chapter. In A. Editor & B. Editor (Eds.), Title of book (pages of chapter). Location: Publisher. doi:xxxxxxxxxxxx

Give initials and surnames for all editors. With two names use ‘&’ between names and no comma to separate. With three or more, separate names by commas. For a book with no editor, simply include the word ‘In’ before the book title.

Book chapter, English translation, reprinted from another source

In text, use (Author, 1979/1987)

Edited book

Multiple editions

Revised edition

Multivolume work

Multivolume work published over more than one year

In text, use (Koch, 1959–1963).

Non-English book

If the original version is used as the source, cite the original version. Give the original title, and, in brackets, the translation.

Non-English reference work, title translated

Translated book

If the English translation is used as the source, cite the English translation. In the text, cite the original publication date and the date of translation (Laplace, 1814/1951).

Republished work

When you cite a republished work in your text, it should appear with both dates: Laplace (1814/1951).

Republished book (electronic version)

Place of publication

For location, you should always list the city, but you should also include the two-letter state abbreviation for US publishers. There is no need to include the country name.

If the publisher is a university and the name of the state is included in the name of the university, do not repeat the state in the publisher location (e.g. Lincoln: University of Nebraska Press).
Washington, DC: Author
Newbury Park, CA: Sage
Pretoria: Unisa
Chicago, IL: University of Chicago Press
Cambridge: Cambridge University Press
Cambridge, MA: Harvard University Press
Abingdon: Routledge

Publisher name
Give the name in as brief a form as possible. Omit terms such as ‘Publishers’, ‘Co.’, ‘Inc.’, but retain the words ‘Books’ and ‘Press’. If two or more publishers are given, give the location listed first or the location of the publisher’s home office.

When the author and publisher are identical, use the word Author as the name of the publisher.

7. Conference proceedings, paper, poster session.

Treat regularly published proceedings (including those published online) as periodicals.

Paper presented at meeting

Poster session

Contributor, C. (Year, Month). Title of contribution. In C. Chairperson (Chair), Title of symposium. Symposium conducted at the meeting of Organization Name, Location.

8. Database.

When you are referencing material obtained from an online database, provide the appropriate print citation information (formatted as a normal print citation would be). Then give the date of retrieval and the proper name of the database, so that people can retrieve the print version if they do not have access to the database. (For more about citing articles retrieved from electronic databases, see page 278 of the Publication Manual.)

10. Electronic sources.
Provide the DOI if one has been assigned. Copy and paste this where possible, and do not change it. The DOI can usually be found on the first page of an article at the top or bottom of the page.

If no DOI has been assigned, give the home page URL of the journal, book, or report publisher. Do not insert a hyphen into a URL, and do not add a full stop after it. Authors should test URLs in their references at each stage of publication, updating the URL if necessary. If the content is no longer available, substitute another source (i.e. the final version if you have cited a draft version) or remove it altogether.

Do not include retrieval dates unless the source material may change, e.g. wikis.

11. Email, mailing list, blog.

No personal communication (email, interview, letter, etc.) should be included in the reference list. In the text, cite the communicator’s name, the fact that it was personal communication, and the date of the communication.

A.P. Smith also claimed that many of her students had difficulties with APA style (personal communication, November 3, 2002).

Online forum or discussion board posting

Include the title of the message and the URL of the newsgroup or discussion board.

If the author provides a real name, use their real name, but if only the screen name is available, then use that. Provide the exact date of the posting. Follow the date with the subject line, the thread of the message (not in italics). Provide any identifiers in brackets after the title. Include the retrieval information and the name of the list to which the message was posted if this is not part of the URL. Provide the address for the archived version of the message.

Blog post

Video blog post

12. Film.

Producer, P.P. (Producer), & Director, D.D. (Director). (Date of publication). Title of motion picture [Motion picture]. Country of origin: Studio or distributor.

If a movie or video tape is not available in wide distribution, add the following to your citation after the country of origin: (Available from Distributor name, full address).

Harris, M. (Producer), & Turley, M.J. (Director). (2002). Writing labs: A history [Motion picture]. (Available from Purdue University Pictures, 500 Oval Drive, West Lafayette, IN 47907)

13. Interview.

No personal communication (email, interview, letter, etc.) should be included in the reference list. In the text, cite the communicator’s name, the fact that it was personal communication, and the date of the communication.

A.P. Smith also claimed that many of her students had difficulties with APA style (personal communication, November 3, 2002).

14. Journal article.

Authors are named by last name followed by initials (closed up); publication year goes between parentheses, followed by a full stop (period). Only the first word and proper nouns in the title and subtitle are capitalized. The periodical title has main words capitalized, and is followed by the volume number which, with the title, is also italicized and then the DOI. Provide the issue number ONLY if each issue of the journal begins on page 1. In such cases it goes in parentheses: Journal, 8(1), pp–pp.

If the DOI is not available and the reference was retrieved online, give the URL of the journal home page. No retrieval date is needed.

If you are citing a version which is not the Version of Record, insert ‘Advance online publication’ before the retrieval statement.

If you are citing supplementary material which is only available online, include a description of the contents in brackets following the title.

One author

Multiple authors

If there are more than seven authors, list the first six with an ellipsis before the last.

If there are seven authors, all of them can be listed.

Two or more works by the same author

Use the author’s name for all entries and list the entries by the year (earliest first).

Green, T.J. (1981).

Green, T.J. (1999).

When an author appears both as a sole author and, in another citation, as the first author of a group, list the one-author entries first.

References that have the same first author and different second and/or third authors are arranged alphabetically by the last name of the second author, or the last name of the third if the first and second authors are the same.

Order of several works by different first authors with the same surname

Arrange alphabetically by first initial:

Wegener, D.T., & Kerr, N.L.

Wegener, P.Q., & Ahlers, R.E.

Two or more works by the same author in the same year

If you are using more than one reference by the same author (or the same group of authors listed in the same order) published in the same year, organize them in the reference list alphabetically by the title of the article or chapter. Then assign letter suffixes to the year. Refer to these sources in your text as they appear in your reference list, e.g.: ‘Green (1981a) makes similar claims...’

Editorial without signature

Special issue or section

To cite an entire issue, give the editors of the issue and the title of the issue.

Monograph as part of a journal issue

Advance online publication refers to a version which is not the Version of Record. It may be a proof or the author’s original version, so it has normally been peer reviewed but not necessarily copy-edited or formatted correctly.
