In the text
Placement	References are numbered consecutively in the order in which they are first mentioned in the text. Identify references in text, tables, and legends by bracketed numbers [1], and provide a list of references at the end of the article in numerical order. Reuse the original number assigned to the reference each time the reference is cited in the text, regardless of its previous position in the text. Insert the citation numbers at the relevant place in the text. As a general rule, reference numbers should be placed outside full stops and commas and inside colons

	and semicolons. When citing multiple references, use commas (without spaces) to separate them. Use an en dash to join inclusive first and last numbers, e.g. [2,3,4,5,7,10] would be abbreviated to [2-5,7,10]. Give a note number even if the author is named in the text: Jones [10] has argued that ... Jones and Smith [12] have argued that ... If you want to name more than two authors in the text, use: Jones et al. [3] have argued that ... Examples: See [11,12]. See, for example, [1,3,10-13,15-20,22-25,27,28]. For some work along these lines, see [3,13,17,18,27].
With a quotation	Author maintains that "This is author's quoted text". [1,p.3]
Page number	Jones [10,p.23-7] states that
	Note that page numbers in the text are different to those in the reference list, with no space before or after the page number. In both cases NLM uses p. rather than pp., and the page range is shortened.
Personal communication	References to personal communications are cited only in the text. ... and most of these proved to be fatal (2003 letter from RS Grant to me; unreferenced, see "Notes") ...
Tables and figures	References cited only in tables or figure legends should be numbered in accordance with the sequence established by the first identification in the text of the particular table or figure.

Reference list
Order	Numerical order based on the text
Form of author name	Surname and initials Capitalize surnames and enter spaces within surnames as they appear in the document you are citing, e.g. Van Der Horn or van der Horn; De Wolf or de Wolf or DeWolf. Place family designations of rank after the initials, without punctuation, e.g. Author AA Jr See http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/books/NBK7282/ for further guidance.

Place of publication	Always list the city, and include the two-letter state abbreviation for US publishers. Include the country name for other countries only to avoid ambiguity: Cambridge (MA) Cambridge (England) If more than one place of publication is found, use the place of publication and publisher likely to be most familiar to the audience of the reference list. For example, use the place of an American publisher for a US audience and a London publisher for a British one. If no place of publication can be found but can be reasonably inferred, place the city in square brackets, such as [Chicago]. If no place of publication can be found or inferred, use [place unknown].
Publisher	Abbreviate well-known publisher names, e.g. John Wiley & Sons, Ltd. may become simply Wiley. If no publisher can be determined, use the words "publisher unknown" placed in square brackets.
Journal
	Provide the issue number as well as the volume number. If there are no volume numbers, follow the date of publication with a semicolon and the issue number, placed

	in parentheses. If no issue number is found, follow the volume number with a colon and the pagination. Internet journal articles: abbreviate months using the first three letters. Include any date of update/revision and a date of citation in square brackets following the date of publication. Use the dates for the individual journal article being cited, not the dates of the journal issue as a whole unless no dates can be found for the individual item. When the location (pagination) of the article is not provided calculate the length of the article using the best means possible, e.g., in terms of print pages, screens or paragraphs. Provide the URL or other electronic address of the article.
One author	Author AA. Title of article. Title of Journal in Full. 2012 Jan;62(1):112-6. Author B. Title of article. Journal of Publishing [Internet]. 2012 Jan [cited 2012 Apr 8];8(1). Available from: http://www.xxxxxxxx.html

No author	Pelvic floor exercise can reduce stress incontinence. Health News. 2005 Apr;11(4):11.
Not in English	Translate non-English titles into English; place the translation in square brackets. When possible, place the original language title or romanized title before the translation. Capitalize only the first word of the title, proper nouns, proper adjectives, acronyms, and initialisms unless the conventions of a particular language require other capitalization. Indicate the language after the pagination: Berrino F, Gatta G, Crosignani P. [Case-control evaluation of screening efficacy]. Journal Title in Full. 2004 Nov-Dec;28(6):354-9. Italian.
Not the Version of Record	Author, AA. Article title. Title of Journal. 2010 May;31(3):210-6. Epub 2012 Feb 20.

Supplementary material	If a journal article has supplemental material accompanying it in the form of a CD-ROM, DVD, or other medium, begin by citing the article. Add the phrase "Accompanied by:" followed by a description of the medium. Author AH. Article title. Journal Title. 1999 Sep–Oct;5(5):553–60. Accompanied by: Video on CD-ROM.
Other article types	An article type alerts the user that the reference is to an abstract of an article or a letter to the editor, not a full article. Place, e.g., [abstract], [book review] or [letter] after the article title: Author K. Article title [book review]. Journal Title in Full. 2007 Jul 3;177(1):70.
Conference

Electronic mailing list	Like email, messages posted to discussion lists are a form of personal communication and are not included in a reference list. Place within the running text only. The nature and source of the cited information should be identified by an appropriate statement. Place the source information in parentheses, using a term or terms to indicate that the citation is not represented in the reference list. For example: ...and many nurses involved with such cases (Mar 22, 2007 posting by RS Grant to the ANPACC Listserv; unreferenced, see "Notes") report...

Blog	Messages posted to discussion lists like a blog are considered a form of personal communication and should not be included in a reference list. Place references to such communications within the running text only. The nature and source of the cited information should be identified by an appropriate statement. Place the source information in parentheses, using a term or terms to indicate that the citation is not represented in the reference list. For example: ...and many nurses involved with such cases (Mar 22, 2007 posting by RS Grant to Nurse Studio Blog; unreferenced, see "Notes") report...
