

Instructions for Authors:

Please read these Guidelines carefully. Failure to follow them may result in consideration of your paper being delayed.

Submitting a Paper to Culture, Health & Sexuality

All submissions should be made online at Culture Health and Sexuality's Manuscript Central site (link to <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/tchs>). New users should first create an account. Once a user is logged onto the site submissions should be made via the Author Centre.

Authors should prepare and upload two versions of their manuscript. One should be a complete text, while in the second all document information identifying the author should be removed from files to allow them to be sent anonymously to referees. When uploading files authors will then be able to define the non-anonymous version as "File not for review".

Queries concerning the preparation of manuscripts may be directed to the Editor-in-Chief by e-mail at chs@ioe.ac.uk in advance of submission.

General Guidelines

Culture, Health & Sexuality considers all manuscripts on the strict condition that they have been submitted only to Culture, Health & Sexuality, and that they have not been published already nor are they under consideration for publication or in press elsewhere. Authors who fail to adhere to this condition will be charged with all costs which Culture, Health & Sexuality incurs and their papers will not be published.

Contributions to Culture, Health & Sexuality must report original research and will be subjected to peer review.

There are a limited number of colour pages within the annual page allowance. Authors should restrict their use of colour to situations where it is necessary on scientific, and not merely cosmetic, grounds. In addition, authors may pay to publish colour illustrations, but please consult the publisher regarding cost before submission.

Writing your paper

- For all manuscripts non-discriminatory language is mandatory. Sexist, heterosexist, and racist terms should not be used.
- A typical article will not exceed 7,500 words in total (including all references and notes). Papers that greatly exceed this will not be eligible for entry into the peer review process.
- Each paper should include three to five keywords on its title page.
- Papers are accepted only in English.
- Manuscripts should be double-spaced throughout including the reference section, with wide (3 cm) margins.
- All the authors of a paper should include their full names, affiliations, postal and email addresses, telephone and fax numbers on the cover page of manuscripts.
- Abstracts of 150 - 200 words are required for all papers submitted and should precede the text of a paper.
- Manuscripts should be compiled in the following order: title page; abstract; keywords; main text; acknowledgments; appendixes (as appropriate); references; table(s) with caption(s) (on individual sheets); figure caption(s) (as a list).
- When using a word which is or is asserted to be a proprietary term or trade mark authors must use the symbol ® or TM or alternatively a footnote can be inserted using the wording below:

This article includes a word that is or is asserted to be a proprietary term or trade mark. Its inclusion does not imply it has acquired for legal purposes a non-proprietary or general significance, nor is any other judgement implied concerning its legal status.

Copyright

It is a condition of publication that authors vest or license copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in Taylor & Francis Group Ltd. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the material elsewhere after publication providing that prior permission is obtained from Taylor & Francis Group Ltd. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.

For details on copyright permission click here. Copies of the permission letters should be sent with the manuscript to the Editors.

Early Electronic Offprints

Corresponding authors can now receive their article by email as a complete PDF. This allows the author to print up to 50 copies, free of charge, and disseminate them to colleagues. In many cases, this facility will be available up to two weeks prior to publication. Alternatively, corresponding authors will receive the traditional 50 print offprints. A copy of the Journal will be sent by post to all corresponding authors after publication. Additional copies of the Journal can be purchased at the author's preferential rate of £15.00/$25.00 per copy.

Page Charges

There are no page charges to individuals or institutions.
