To access a free Online sample copy and for further information on these journals, please visit: www.tandf.co.uk/libsite/resources/
New Review of Information Networking
Editor: Derek Law, University of Strathclyde, UK
Associate Editor: Jamal Cronimy, Dialog, IGC
New Review of Information Networking provides an expert source on the needs and behavior of the network user and the role of networks in teaching, learning, and scholarly communication; the implications of networks for library and information services; the development of campus and other information strategies; the role of information publishers on the networks; policies for funding and charging for network and information services; and standards and protocols for network applications.
Volume 17, 2012, 2 issues per year
Online ISSN: 1361-4576
For more information and subscription rates, please visit: www.tandfonline.com/RINN

The Information Society
Editor: Harmeeet Sawhney, Indiana University
The Information Society is a multidisciplinary journal intended to answer questions about the Information Age. It provides a forum for thoughtful commentary and discussion of significant topics in the world of information, such as transborder data flow, regulatory issues, the impact of the information industry, information as a determinant of public and private organizational performance, and information and the sovereignty of the public and private organizational performance, and information and the sovereignty of the public.
Volume 28, 2012, 5 issues per year
Online ISSN: 1087-6537 • Print ISSN: 0197-2243
For more information and subscription rates, please visit: www.tandfonline.com/UTIS

Slavic & East European Information Resources
Editor: Karen Rondествedt, PhD, Stanford University
Slavic & East European Information Resources serves as a focal point for the international exchange of information in the field of Slavic librarianship. Affiliated with the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies, the journal contains news of the profession, technical developments, reviews of literature, original research, and everything that touches on the practice of Slavic librarianship worldwide.
Volume 13, 2012, 4 issues per year
Online ISSN: 1522-9041 • Print ISSN: 1522-8886
For more information and subscription rates, please visit: www.tandfonline.com/MMIS

New Review of Academic Librarianship
Editor: Graham Walton, PhD, Loughborough University, UK
The New Review of Academic Librarianship is an international publication designed to explore the wide range of issues of current concern to academic libraries: collections and collections management; support for teaching and learning and research; developments in library buildings and space; deployment of information and communications technology; human resources management; financial management; information literacy; and more.
Volume 18, 2012, 2 issues per year
Online ISSN: 1740-7834 • Print ISSN: 1361-4533
For more information and subscription rates, please visit: www.tandfonline.com/RACL

INTERNATIONAL LIBRARIANSHIP

Slavic & East European Information Resources
Editor: Karen Rondествedt, PhD, Stanford University
Slavic & East European Information Resources serves as a focal point for the international exchange of information in the field of Slavic librarianship. Affiliated with the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies, the journal contains news of the profession, technical developments, reviews of literature, original research, and everything that touches on the practice of Slavic librarianship worldwide.
Volume 13, 2012, 4 issues per year
Online ISSN: 1522-9041 • Print ISSN: 1522-8886
For more information and subscription rates, please visit: www.tandfonline.com/MMIS

Preparing Past Brilliance: Uncover the Archive
Enjoy the rich academic heritage of 25 Library & Information Science journals published by Routledge from 1996 back to Volume 1, issue 1. Learn from the past to develop techniques for the future. For further information visit: www.tandf.co.uk/lsit/products/Info/journals/onlineArchive/InfoScience/