Celebrity Studies

Editors: Sean Redmond, Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand and Su Holmes, University of East Anglia, UK

Volume 2, 2011, 3 issues per year
Print ISSN: 1939-2397, Online ISSN: 1939-2400

Celebrity Studies focuses on the critical exploration of celebrity, stardom and fame. It seeks to make sense of celebrity by drawing upon a range of (inter)disciplinary approaches, media forms, historical periods and national contexts.

Celebrity Studies aims to address key issues in the production, circulation and consumption of fame, and its manifestations in both contemporary and historical contexts, while functioning as a key site for academic debate about the enterprise of celebrity studies itself. Alongside the primary articles, the journal will include a 'blog' section devoted to shorter observations, debates or issues in celebrity culture, in conjunction with book reviews and conference reports.
