

Anthropological Forum

Call for submissions

Anthropological Forum is a journal of social anthropology and comparative sociology that specialises in Australia, Southeast Asia and the Pacific.

Founded in 1963, Anthropological Forum has a distinguished publication history. The journal provides a forum for both established and innovative approaches to anthropological research, and welcomes manuscripts from both experienced researchers and young scholars seeking publication for the first time. A special section devoted to contributions on applied anthropology will appear periodically. The editors are especially keen to publish new approaches based on ethnographic and theoretical work in the journal's established areas of strength: Australian culture and society; Aboriginal Australia, Southeast Asia and the Pacific.

Submission Details:

Anthropological Forum welcomes submissions of manuscripts relating to all topics discussed above.

Please send your manuscript as an e-mail attachment. Articles must not exceed 10,000 words including notes and bibliography. All articles are judged on merit and are reviewed anonymously by the Editorial Board and at least two external referees.
