

Asian Philosophy

An International Journal of the Philosophical Traditions of the East

Editors:

Dr Brian Carr, University of Exeter, UK
Dr Indira Mahalingam, University of Exeter, UK

Call for submissions

Asian Philosophy is an international journal concerned with such philosophical traditions as Indian, Chinese, Japanese, Buddhist and Islamic. The purpose of the journal is to bring these rich and varied traditions to a worldwide academic audience.

It publishes articles in the central philosophical areas of metaphysics, philosophy of mind, epistemology, logic, moral and social philosophy, as well as in applied philosophical areas such as aesthetics and jurisprudence. It also publishes articles comparing Eastern and Western philosophical traditions.

Submission Details:

Submissions relating to the topics discussed above are welcome. Contributors should bear in mind that they are addressing an international audience.

Submissions will be seen anonymously by two referees.

The Editors prefer to receive manuscripts by e-mail (in MS Word) and these should be sent to the Editor, Brian Carr, at b.carr@exeter.ac.uk

For full details, please visit the 'Instructions for Authors' page on www.informaworld.com/casp