INVITATION TO CONTRIBUTE TO A LEADING JOURNAL IN BUSINESS ECONOMICS

The International Journal of the Economics of Business is a refereed journal that provides a forum for scholarly research in economics that is clearly applicable to business and related public policy issues.

The Journal focuses on applied industrial organisation, industrial economics and managerial economics. Papers from other related micro fields impinging on business and policy towards business are also welcome. These include applied finance, labour economics, law and economics, health economics, economic history and decision theory.

As well as research papers, the Journal also has an industry study/survey section and carries extended book review articles. The editors welcome ideas for these, as well as proposals for guest edited special issues.

For further information, to view a sample copy, and for submission details, please visit the Journal's web page at www.informaworld.com/ijeb.
