

Journal of Baltic Studies

CALL FOR PAPERS

Journal of Baltic Studies, the official journal of the Association for the Advancement of Baltic Studies (AABS), is a peer-reviewed multidisciplinary journal for the purpose of advancing the accumulation of knowledge about all aspects of the Baltic Sea region's political, social, economic, and cultural life, past and present. Preference is given to original contributions that are of general scholarly interest.

The Editor invites submissions of original material for consideration as articles, usually 5000-10,000 words in length. Manuscripts submitted to Journal of Baltic Studies should not be under consideration by any other publishers, nor may the manuscript have been previously published elsewhere. Authors are responsible for observing the laws of copyright when quoting or reproducing material and for any reproduction fees incurred.

All prospective authors should consult the submission details in Instructions for Authors available at www.tandf.co.uk/journals/authors/rbalauth.pdf. Details concerning the submission of book reviews are also available at this site. Please do not hesitate to contact the Editorial Office if you are unsure of any style points or if you have any queries.
