CALL FOR PAPERS

Criminal Justice Ethics is currently a semi-annual journal designed to focus greater attention on ethical issues in criminal justice by and for philosophers, criminal justice professionals, lawyers and judges, and other contributors to an informed social discourse. Its editorial scope includes topics relating to the police, the courts, corrections, and broader issues in legal philosophy that bear on criminal justice and its processes.

SUBMISSIONS

Criminal Justice Ethics welcomes international submissions. Initial contributions must be typewritten, double-spaced and, if submitted as hard copy, provided in duplicate, with notes numbered consecutively, double-spaced, and gathered at the end. Submissions via email attachment are also acceptable. Citation format should adhere to the standards outlined in The Chicago Manual of Style (15th edition), following its humanities (endnotes only) option.

Authors whose articles are accepted will be asked to supply a digital version of their final revision. In addition to welcoming articles, Criminal Justice Ethics invites submissions of review and bibliographic essays. All submissions must be original and must not presently be under consideration elsewhere. All manuscripts should be sent to Margaret Leland Smith, Managing Editor Criminal Justice Ethics, The Institute for Criminal Justice Ethics, 555 West 57th Street, Suite 607, New York, NY 10019, USA.
