

International Journal of Sport Policy

CALL FOR PAPERS

The International Journal of Sport Policy stimulates scholarly debate about the role, significance and impact of public policy on sport. The journal provides a forum on how the state is shaping the way in which sport is produced and how sport is used for achieving non-sport objectives in areas such as welfare, community development and diplomacy. Articles published are theoretically rigorous and appeal to both scholars and practitioners.

“The International Journal of Sport Policy has had an immediate impact on the field. It is the only journal of its kind that offers a unique multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary perspective on the increasingly important role of sport, as a social practice and institution, within the wider nexus of public policy. IJSP will be essential reading for scholars, professionals and policy makers.”

Steve Jackson, University of Otago, New Zealand,
President of ISSA
