

Justice Quarterly

Call for Papers

New Editor for 2008:

Richard Tewksbury - University of Louisville, USA

Justice Quarterly is a multidisciplinary journal that publishes theoretical contributions and empirical studies on issues of crime and justice. We welcome articles from authors trained in all disciplines applying various methodologies to the study of crime and the justice system.

We will consider only original manuscripts not published previously or currently under consideration.

All submissions should be made online at Justice Quarterly's Manuscript Central site. New users should first create an account. Once a user is logged onto the site submissions should be made via the Author Centre. For more information, please visit www.informaworld.com/jq

Authors should prepare and upload two versions of their manuscript. One should be a complete text, while in the second all document information identifying the author should be removed from files to allow them to be sent anonymously to referees. When uploading files authors will then be able to define the non-anonymous version as "File not for review".

Manuscript Central is the publishing industry's number one online tool for managing manuscripts through the scholarly journal peer review process.

For more information about Manuscript Central, please visit www.scholarone.com

For more information about Justice Quarterly
please visit www.informaworld.com/jq

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group