

Final Call for Papers

Great Writing 2011

The UK's 14th Annual Great Writing International Creative Writing Conference

Imperial College London

Saturday June 18th - Sunday June 19th 2011

Critical or creative presentations are invited for this, the 14th Annual Great Writing International Creative Writing Conference, 18th – 19th June 2011.

To be held at one of the UK's great universities and great locations: Imperial College London, South Kensington, a cultural centre for the arts, sciences, music and museums, close to Royal Albert Hall and right next to the wonderful Natural History Museum.

All creative or critical papers are welcome. This year's theme is Creative Writing in all its forms! Let your imaginations lead the way. Onward!

Keynote Event – Saturday night, 18th June 2011:

Inaugural New Writing Annual Creative Writing Lecture/Workshop:

Professor Philip Gross, the 2009 TS Eliot Prize winner, and multi-award-winning writer for children and adults will explore with conference participants: “Who Needs Children’s Poetry?”

Single presentations: 20 minutes, 10 minutes questions. 3 person panels: 90 minutes in total.

(* Limited remaining space – maximum of a dozen more papers/presentations. Conference programme must be printed in May, so early submission is encouraged. Conference call open until full, or until programme requires printing. ***)

Send proposals to: conference@greatwriting.org.uk

For specific queries contact Professor Graeme Harper, Conference Director:

graeme@greatwriting.org.uk

or for general enquiries contact:

conference@greatwriting.org.uk

We look forward to seeing you at Great Writing 2011!