CALL FOR PAPERS

The Scottish Geographical Journal has disseminated a wide ranging collection of articles that cover the breath of Geography, including Quaternary Science, as well as continuing the tradition of being one of the most important outlets for publications relating to the geography of Scotland. The journal is available online via our publishers, Routledge (Taylor & Francis Group).

The editors would welcome papers reporting on original research in Quaternary Science from any part of the world, especially those which discuss issues that relate to Scotland or use Scottish examples to discuss issues with wider applicability.

For more information please contact the editors: Timothy Mighall at t.mighall@abdn.ac.uk or Lorna Philip at l.philip@abdn.ac.uk

All manuscript submissions should be made online through our Manuscript Central site at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/rsgj>

For more information on how to submit a paper please visit:
