

Studies in the History of Gardens and Designed Landscapes

INVITATION TO CONTRIBUTE

Studies in the History of Gardens & Designed Landscapes addresses itself to readers with a serious interest in the subject, and is now established as the main place in which to publish scholarly work on international garden history.

The journal's main emphasis is on detailed and documentary analysis of specific sites in all parts of the world, with focus on both design and reception. The journal is also specifically interested in garden and landscape history as part of wider contexts such as social and cultural history and geography, aesthetics, technology, (most obviously horticulture), presentation and conservation.

From time to time issues are centered around themes, for example, the Anglo-Dutch garden in the age of William and Mary, eighteenth-century gardens of the Chesapeake, gardens of the Ancient Mediterranean, or rediscovering the British garden. Forthcoming special issues include Lawrence Halprin, Horace Walpole's Strawberry Hill, European botanical gardens and scientific research. The Journal publishes reviews and review essays of important literature.
