CALL FOR PAPERS

The New Review of Hypermedia and Multimedia provides a focus for research and a source of information on practical and theoretical developments in hypermedia, hypertext, interactive multimedia and related technologies. These highly innovative systems allow the integration of images, sound, text and data to form powerful tools for information retrieval.

Taylor & Francis would like to invite you to submit your articles to New Review of Hypermedia and Multimedia. Topics of interest include but are not restricted to:

- Conceptual basis of hypertext systems;
cognitive aspects, design strategies
- Intelligent and adaptive hypermedia;
personalisation, adaptation, knowledge organisation systems and services, the semantic web, Web 2.0
- Multimedia issues;
time and synchronisation, link dynamics, link metrics, multimedia authoring, content-based retrieval
- Interaction;
navigation and browsing, search systems, studies of information seeking behaviour, testing and evaluation, user interfaces, experience design, multi-modal interaction
- Tools for hypermedia;
(automatic) authoring systems
- Applications;
literary and creative hypermedia, social networking, physical hypermedia, virtual environments, applications in commerce, digital libraries, e-learning, information management, the professions, publishing, public administration etc.
