Fiber and Integrated Optics

Editor-in-Chief

Henri Hodara, Ph.D.

L-3 Photonics, Carlsbad, CA

Fiber and Integrated Optics is an international bimonthly journal that disseminates significant developments and in-depth surveys in the fields of fiber and integrated optics. The journal is unique in bridging the major disciplines relevant to optical fibers and electro-optical devices. This results in a balanced presentation of basic research, systems applications, and economics. For more than a decade, Fiber and Integrated Optics has been a valuable forum for scientists, engineers, manufacturers, and the business community to exchange and discuss techno-economic advances in the field.

Fiber and Integrated Optics is accepting papers on:

- Fiber Optic Systems
- Fiber Optic Installations
- Fiber Optic Markets
- Economics of Fiber Optics

Instructions for Authors
