

Researchers' Favourites

HIGHER EDUCATION'S MOST CITED ARTICLES

Routledge is proud to showcase this collection of Top Cited Articles from across the Higher Education journal portfolio, featuring articles which made an impact in the 2010 Journal Citation Rankings (JCR)*. We hope these articles are interesting and useful for your research!

Studies in Higher Education

RedisCIPLINING generic attributes: the disciplinary context in focus

Anna Jones

Realising the educational worth of integrating work experiences in higher education

Stephen Billett

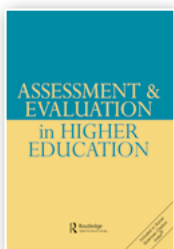

Innovations in Education and Teaching International

'Learning supervision': trial by fire
Cheryl Amundsen & Lynn McAlpine

Ubiquitous knowledge construction: mobile learning re-defined and a conceptual framework

Hsinyi Peng, Yi-Ju Su, Chien Chou & Chin-Chung Tsai

Assessment & Evaluation in Higher Education

Indeterminacy in the use of preset criteria for assessment and grading

D. Royce Sadler

An investigation into written comments on assignments: do students find them usable?

Mirabelle Walker

Studies in Continuing Education

Neoliberalism, lifelong learning, and the homeplace: problematizing the boundaries of 'public' and 'private' to explore women's learning experiences

Patricia A. Gouthro

Quality of assessment of prior learning (APL) in university programmes: perceptions of candidates, tutors and assessors

D. Joosten-ten Brinke, D.M.A. Sluijsmans & W.M.G. Jochems

Teaching in Higher Education

Having, being and higher education: the marketisation of the university and the transformation of the student into consumer

Mike Molesworth, Elizabeth Nixon & Richard Scullion

Developing the scholarship of teaching: what is the role of e-teaching and learning?

Robyn Benson & Charlotte Brack

Higher Education Research & Development

Mentoring circles in higher education

Ann Darwin & Edward Palmer

E-learning in higher education: some key aspects and their relationship to approaches to study

Robert A. Ellis, Paul Ginns & Leanne Piggott