

THE WASHINGTON QUARTERLY

Journal of the Center for Strategic and International Studies

Included in the Social Sciences Citation Index®

The last decade has seen many dramatic changes across Asia; from the war in Afghanistan, to the 2004 Indian Ocean Tsunami, to the impact of the global economic crisis in China and North East Asia.

During this time The Washington Quarterly has published many key articles discussing the political and strategic challenges that countries face across the Asian continent. Please find a selection of these key articles below.

PLEASE CLICK ON THE ARTICLE TITLES BELOW TO GAIN ACCESS

FREE ACCESS ARTICLES

Coping with a Conflicted China

David Shambaugh

The Pragmatic Challenge to Indian Foreign Policy

Deepa Ollapally and Rajesh Rajagopalan

The Anatomy of Japan's Shifting Security Orientation

Tsuyoshi Sunohara

What Do They Really Want?: Obama's North Korea Conundrum

Victor D. Cha

American and Chinese Power after the Financial Crisis

Joseph S. Nye, Jr.

Understanding the Geopolitical Implications of the Global Financial Crisis

Wu Xinbo

Continued

FREE ACCESS ARTICLES

Why America No Longer Gets Asia

Evan A. Feigenbaum

The Sorcerer's Apprentice: Islamist Militancy in South Asia

Sumit Ganguly and S. Paul Kapur

FURTHER READING

China

The Emergent Security Threats Reshaping China's Rise

Ely Ratner

India

Managing and Engaging Rising China: India's Evolving Posture

Sujit Dutta

Rising India: Partner in Shaping the Global Commons?

C. Raja Mohan

South Asia

Caught in the Muddle: America's Pakistan Strategy

Paul Staniland

The Role of Islam in Pakistan's Future

Husain Haqqani

China's Caution on Afghanistan–Pakistan

Andrew Small

Japan

Japan's Confused Revolution

Michael Green

North Korea

Kim Jong-il's Successor Dilemmas

Scott Snyder