

Happy 100th Birthday to The Round Table

The Round Table is Britain's oldest international affairs journal. The Editor, Venkat Iyer, and Routledge are delighted to announce that the journal is celebrating its centenary this year. Since 1910, The Round Table has been at the heart of the debate over defining the Commonwealth and articulating the evolution of an imperial association into an intergovernmental organisation of diverse states based on equality.

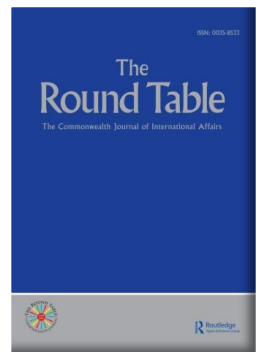

Join in the Celebrations!

New Moot Website

Visit the new Moot website to find out more about the journal, the Hodson Prize, The Round Table studentship, resources and links: <http://www.moot.org.uk>

Free Articles

Click on the article titles below to gain free access:

Global governance and conflict diamonds: the Kimberley Process and the quest for clean gems

Andrew J. Grant and Ian Taylor

Canada in the 21st century: beyond dominion and middle power

Jennifer M. Welsh

Diamonds, foreign aid and the uncertain prospects for post-conflict reconstruction in Sierra Leone

J. Andrew Grant

The Political Economy of Small African States in the WTO

Donna Lee and Nicola J. Smith

The Legacy of War: Conceptualizing a 'Culture of Violence' to Explain Violence after Peace Accords

Chrissie Steenkamp

www.moot.org.uk

ROUTLEDGE
 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group