

Editor's Statement of Concern – May 3, 2012
Psychological Inquiry

We note our concern with respect to the article “Stop Making Sense: The Ultimate Fear” (<http://www.tandfonline.com/doi/abs/10.1080/10478400903448516>) by Diederik Stapel and Marret K. Noordewier. We note that on 31 October 2011, Tilburg University released interim findings of its investigation into apparent data fraud in works published by Diederik Stapel.

INTERIM REPORT REGARDING THE BREACH OF SCIENTIFIC INTEGRITY COMMITTED BY PROF. D.A. STAPEL

The investigation is now being carried out by committees at three universities (see <https://www.commissielevelt.nl>), and preliminary reports have been made on some publications; however, full reports are not yet available. Pending the conclusion of the investigation, Psychological Inquiry is publishing this Editor's Statement of Concern about the validity of data reported in this article.
