

AMERICAN JOURNAL OF SEXUALITY EDUCATION
2009 EDITORIAL ADVISORY BOARD

David L. Bell, MD, MPH, Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health

David L. Bell, MD, MPH, is an Assistant Clinical Professor of Pediatrics and Population and Family Health in the Department of Pediatrics at Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital (MSCHONY) and in the Department of Population and Family Health at Columbia University's Mailman School of Public Health (MSPH). Dr. Bell is an adolescent and young adult specialist that has focused on sexual and reproductive health of adolescents, with a particular focus on adolescent males.

David L. Bell, MD, MPH
Columbia University
Mailman School of Public Health
CCHE, 60 Haven, B3
New York, NY 10032

Sarah C. Beshers, Ph.D., State University of New York at Cortland

Sarah C. Beshers, Ph.D. earned a Ph.D. in human sexuality education at the University of Pennsylvania in 2000. She has been teaching in the Health Department at SUNY-Cortland since the fall of 2003. She teaches courses, both graduate and undergraduate, related to the HIV epidemic, international health, sexuality education, and women's health. Her scholarly work has focused primarily on peer education programs devoted to adolescent sexual health.

Sarah C. Beshers
SUNY-Cortland
P.O. Box 2000
Cortland, NY 13045

Pamela S. Boyle, MS, Clinical and Educational Consultant, Sexuality and Disability

Pamela S. Boyle, MS is a private consultant who provides sexuality assessments, counseling and education to individuals with intellectual and other developmental disabilities who are served by agencies in the New York City metropolitan area. She also provides training workshops to professionals and families. Pamela has written numerous articles on the issue and is currently co-writing a book on sexuality and young adults with intellectual disabilities.

Pamela S. Boyle, MS
66 Blueberry Ridge Drive
Holtsville, NY 11742

Clint Bruess, Birmingham-Southern College

Dr. Clint E. Bruess is Professor of Education at Birmingham-Southern College (Alabama). He co-authored Sexuality Education: Theory and Practice (2009), Exploring the Dimensions of Human Sexuality (2007, 2011), and authored sexuality education chapters/articles. He was department chair at three universities and Dean of Education at UAB for 12 years. He has a B.S. (Macalester College), M.A. (University of Maryland, and Ed.D. in health education (Temple University). He teaches college level courses in Sexuality Education Issues and in Human Sexuality.

Clint E. Bruess, Ed. D., CHES
Professor
Department of Education
Birmingham-Southern College
Birmingham, AL 35254

Heather Corrina, Scarleteen.com

Heather Corinna is the founder and director of Scarleteen.com, an online sexuality and sexual health resource that has served millions of young people since 1998. She also directs CONNECT, the teen sexual health outreach program for the Cedar River Clinics in Washington. An award-winner for her grassroots activism in young adult and women's sexuality and sexual health, she is the author of S.E.X.: The All-You-Need-to-Know Progressive Sexuality Guide to Get You Through High School and College.

Heather Corinna
Scarleteen
1752 NW Market Street, #627
Seattle, Washington, 98107

John P. Elia, Ph.D., San Francisco State University

John P. Elia, Ph.D., is a professor of health education at San Francisco State University. He received his Ph.D. in education with a specialization in the history and philosophy of American education from the University of California, Davis in 1997. His research interests include the history of American school-based sexuality education, and LGBT & Queer inclusion in school-based sexuality education. Besides being editor-in-chief of the Journal of Homosexuality, he serves as an editorial board member for a number of scholarly journals.

John P. Elia, Ph.D.
Professor & Associate Chair
Department of Health Education
San Francisco State University
College of Health & Human Services
1600 Holloway Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94132-4161

Sallie Foley, LMSW, The center for sexual health¹, University of Michigan Health Systems

Sallie Foley, LMSW, is a sex therapist and sexuality educator. She is the director of both the center for sexual health and the Michigan Sexual Health Certificate Program at University of Michigan. Her research and teaching interests include impact of chronic illness on sexual health concerns and teaching health care providers about sexual health. She is on faculty at School of Social Work. She writes about the treatment of sexual difficulties and women's sexual health.

Sallie Foley, LMSW
Clinical Social Worker
Director, center for sexual health²
University of Michigan Health Systems
East Ann Arbor Health Center
4260 Plymouth Road
Ann Arbor, MI 48109-2707

¹ Note: lower-case is intentional.

² Again, lower-case is intentional.

Betsy Crane, Widener University

Betsy Crane, Ph.D. (Cornell, 2000) directs the Widener Graduate Programs in Human Sexuality, is a board member of the Society for the Scientific Study of Sexuality, and is president of the Foundation for the Scientific Study of Sexuality. She began work as a sexuality educator in 1977, and was Education Director for Planned Parenthood in Ithaca, NY for many years. She is co-editor of Sexual Lives: A Reader on the Theories and Realities of Human Sexualities (McGraw-Hill, 2003).

Betsy Crane, Ph.D., Director
Human Sexuality Education
Hyatt Hall 316
Widener University
Chester, PA 19013

John DeLameter, University of Wisconsin

John DeLameter, Ph.D. is a professor of sociology at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. He earned his Ph.D. in Social Psychology at the University of Michigan in 1969. Dr. DeLameter's areas of interest include social psychology, human sexuality, gender, life course, and deviance, law and social control. Research interests include sexuality across the life course, intimate relationships, health promotion, and survey research methodology. From 1997 to 2008, Dr. DeLameter served as editor for the Journal of Sex Research.

John DeLameter, Ph.D.
Professor of Sociology
University of Wisconsin
2432 Social Science Building
Madison, WI 53706-1393

Joan Garrity, Garrity Health Consulting & Training

Joan Garrity has been training counselors, educators, medical students, and social service and healthcare providers for over 30 years. She delivers trainings on counseling and supervisory skills related to sexuality, adolescence, reproductive health, substance use, and HIV/AIDS throughout the United States and internationally. Joan has authored numerous curricula and training manuals for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and for Title X Training Centers throughout the country. She is a former Board Member of SIECUS.

Joan Garrity
Garrity Health Consulting & Training
11507 Asbury Court
White Marsh, MD 21162-1945

Eva S. Goldfarb, Ph.D., Montclair State University

Eva Goldfarb, Ph.D., is Professor and Chairperson, Department of Health and Nutrition Sciences at Montclair State University. She has published numerous articles, as well as books, book chapters, and curricula and has presented at conferences worldwide in the area of sexuality education and sexual health. A nationally recognized expert in the field, Dr. Goldfarb provides education, training, and other support to young people, parents, college students, education professionals and organizations in the area of sexuality education.

Eva S. Goldfarb, Ph.D.
Chair and Professor
Department of Health and Nutrition Sciences
Montclair State University
1 Normal Avenue
Montclair, NJ 07043

Carmen J. Head, MPH, CHES, Society of Public Health Educators

Carmen J. Head is the Director of School Health Programs at the Society for Public Health Education. Ms. Head has over a decade of experience in managing private and federally funded projects that address child, adolescent and school health including HIV/AIDS, STDs, teen pregnancy, and chronic disease. Ms. Head has a special research include addressing the underlying social factors which proliferate disparities in health due to race and ethnicity as well as bridging the gap between research and practice in public health. Ms. Head has past experience working at both the National School Boards Association and the United Negro College Fund Special Programs Corporation.

Carmen J. Head, MPH, CHES
Director, School Health Programs
10 G St. NE Suite 605
Washington, DC 20002

Debby Herbenick, PhD, MPH, The Center for Sexual Health Promotion, Indiana University

Debby Herbenick, PhD, MPH, is Associate Director of the Center for Sexual Health Promotion at Indiana University where she is a Research Scientist in the Department of Applied Health Science. She is also a sexual health educator at The Kinsey Institute for Research in Sex, Gender and Reproduction and author of Because It Feels Good: A Woman's Guide to Sexual Pleasure and Satisfaction (Rodale Press). In addition, Dr. Herbenick is an AASECT certified sexuality educator.

Debby Herbenick, PhD, MPH
The Center for Sexual Health Promotion
Indiana University
Dept of Applied Health Science, HPER 116
Bloomington, IN 47405

Bernice Humphrey, MHSA, Girls Incorporated

Bernice Humphrey is Associate Director of Program and Training Services at Girls Incorporated. Ms. Humphrey has over 30 years of experience in program development, project management, and training in maternal and child health issues and adolescent health and sexuality. She has been involved in national efforts addressing adolescent health issues, including DHHS Office of Women's Health Committee on Adolescent Girls' Health, the National Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy, and the Healthy Teen Network (formerly NOAPPP).

Bernice Humphrey, MHSA
Girls Incorporated
441 W Michigan St
Indianapolis, IN 46202

Tom Klaus, MS, Advocates for Youth

Tom Klaus oversees the national teen pregnancy prevention work for Advocates for Youth through the National Support Center for State Teen Pregnancy Prevention Organizations. Since 1971, Tom has been an organization leader, youth worker, and sexual health educator. Today he leads a team that provides capacity building through organizational development training, coaching, and technical assistance to state and regional teen pregnancy prevention and sexual health organizations. Tom is earning a Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership at Eastern University.

Tom Klaus, MS
Advocates for Youth
2000 M ST, NW, Ste 750
Washington, DC 20036

Patricia Barthalow Koch, Ph.D., Pennsylvania State University

Patricia Barthalow Koch, Ph.D. is Professor of Biobehavioral Health at the Pennsylvania State University, Adjunct Professor of Human Sexuality at Widener University, and Director of the Pennsylvania Learning Academy for Sexuality Education. She is the Past President and Fellow of The Society for the Scientific Study of Sexuality. She has received numerous awards for both her teaching and research, including the highest teaching award given at Penn State.

Patricia Barthalow Koch, Ph.D.
Pennsylvania State University
221 Hubler Dr.
State College, PA 16802

Darrel Lang, EdD, MS, Kansas State Department of Education

Dr. Darrel Lang presently serves as the HIV/AIDS and Human Sexuality Education Consultant at the Kansas State Department of Education. Additionally, he has taught at the secondary and university levels in the states of New York, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Kansas and served as a university administrator. He has delivered in-service workshops on health-related topics to over 30,000 teachers throughout the United States and internationally. Dr. Lang is in his 39th year in the education field.

Dr. Darrel Lang
Health and Physical Education
HIV/AIDS and Human Sexuality Consultant
Kansas State Department of Education
120 SE 10th Ave.
Topeka, KS 66612-1182

Lis Maurer, MS, CFLE, Center for LGBT Education, Outreach & Services, Ithaca College

Lis Maurer is Coordinator of the Center for LGBT Education, Outreach & Services at Ithaca College. The American Association of Sex Educators, Counselors and Therapists has designated Maurer a Certified Sexuality Educator and Counselor. Maurer is also a member of the Editorial Board of The Prevention Researcher, and a Certified Family Life Educator through the National Council on Family Relations. Maurer also teaches undergraduate and graduate level sexuality course, and has written work in a variety of publications.

Lis Maurer
Center for LGBT Education, Outreach & Services, Ithaca College
336 S Geneva ST
Ithaca, NY 14850

Konstance McCaffree, Ph.D., The Society for the Scientific Study of Sexuality

Konstance McCaffree, Ph.D., is an adjunct Professor in Widener University's Program in Human Sexuality. She consults internationally assisting in the development of sexuality education curriculum and the training of teachers. Dr. McCaffree is the co-author of the Centers of Disease Control (CDC) award winning and nationally promoted curricula for minority youth, Be Proud! Be Responsible!, Making a Difference, and Making Proud Choices. She is the President of the Society for the Scientific Study of Sexuality (SSSS).

Konstance McCaffree, Ph.D.
560 Maple Ave
Doylestown, Pa 18901

Michael McGee, M.Ed., C.S.E., World Association for Sexual Health (WAS)

Michael McGee, M.Ed. is the executive director of the World Association for Sexual Health (WAS), and adjunct faculty at Fairleigh Dickinson University and Montclair State University. He serves on the board of directors for the American Association for Sexuality Educators, Counselors, and Therapists, and the editorial board of the online magazine American Sexuality. He is an AASECT-certified sexuality educator.

Michael McGee, M.Ed., C.S.E.
World Association for Sexual Health
804 West 180 Street #36
New York, NY 10033

Carole Miller, M.Ed. Planned Parenthood of the Great Northwest

Carole Miller is the VP of Education, Training and Organizational Effectiveness at PPGNW and has been in the field of Sexual Health for over 20 years. She leads a team of Educators and Trainers who provide sexuality education and professional development, and oversees internal improvement initiatives. Her department is known for the creation of the award winning Teen Council program, the Speaking of Sex Podcast and Planned Parenthood University. She provides training nationally, most recently on Peer Education programs, and Understanding by Design (UbD).

Carole Miller, M.Ed
Planned Parenthood of the Great Northwest
2001 E Madison
Seattle, WA 98122

Sue Montfort, MAT, CHES, The Center for Family Life Education, Planned Parenthood of Greater Northern New Jersey

Sue Montfort is a Senior Sexual Health Educator and Trainer at the Center for Family Life Education at Planned Parenthood of Greater Northern New Jersey. Since 1981, she has provided programs, both locally and nationally, on a variety of topics for a wide range of audiences. She has coauthored or contributed to many of the Center's publications, particularly Unequal Partners: Teaching about Power and Consent in Adult-Teen and Other Relationships, Making Sense of Abstinence, and the Healthy Foundations booklets.

Sue Montfort, MAT, CHES
The CFLE, PPGNNJ
196 Speedwell Ave
Morristown, NJ 07960

Joy O'Donnell, National Sexuality Resource Center, San Francisco State University

Joy O'Donnell is Director of Outreach for the National Sexuality Resource Center at San Francisco State University and has worked as a sexuality educator and community outreach specialist for over 10 years. Joy's primary areas of expertise include aging, faith, marriage history and LGBT rights as they relate to lifelong sexuality education. Joy is a graduate of San Francisco State University, where she received both a Master of Arts and Bachelor of Arts in History.

Joy O'Donnell
1200 65th Street #103
Emeryville, CA 94608

Mary A. Ott, M.D., Indiana University School of Medicine

Mary A. Ott, MD is an assistant professor of pediatrics at Indiana University. Dr. Ott's research focuses on developmental aspects of adolescent sexual health, including decision-making, communication and behavior related to sexual abstinence, contraceptive use, and STIs, as well as ethical aspects of working with vulnerable populations on sensitive issues. She is on the editorial advisory committee of Perspectives in Sexual and Reproductive Health and the editorial board of the American Journal of Sexuality Education.

Mary A. Ott, M.D.
Assistant Professor of Pediatrics
Section of Adolescent Medicine
Indiana University School of Medicine
410 west 10th street, Suite 1001
Indianapolis, IN 46202

Patricia Paluzzi, CNM, DrPH, Healthy Teen Network

Dr. Paluzzi has been active in the fields of reproductive and maternal and child health for over 30 years, as a clinician, researcher, administrator and advocate. She came to Healthy Teen Network in 2002 and during this time, the organization has grown to twice the number of staff and enjoyed a 50 percent increase in the budget. Previous to joining the Healthy Teen Network team, Dr. Paluzzi worked for the Baltimore City Health Department as the Bureau Chief of Adolescent and Reproductive Health; ran a nationwide education project focused on changing the paradigm of care for survivors of intimate partner violence; was part of a multi-disciplinary team working with pregnant substance abusing women, and provided full scope clinical services to young families. Dr. Paluzzi is a Certified Nurse Midwife with both a Masters and Doctorate in Public Health from the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health in Baltimore, MD.

Patricia Paluzzi, CNM, DrPH
President/CEO, Healthy Teen Network
1501 Saint Paul Street, #124
Baltimore, MD 21218

Erika Pluhar, PhD, EdS, LPC, Emory University

Erika Pluhar, PhD, EdS, LPC is a Certified Sex Therapist and Sexuality Educator in private practice in Atlanta, Georgia. She also teaches as an adjunct faculty member in the Department of Behavioral Sciences and Health Education in the Rollins School of Public Health at Emory University and the Community Counseling program at Argosy University/Atlanta.

Erika Pluhar, PhD, EdS, LPC
Emory University
34 Lenox Pointe, NE
Atlanta, GA 30324

Susan Powers-Alexander, Ph.D., Consultant and Professional Trainer

Susan Powers-Alexander holds a doctorate in Psychological and Cultural Studies. She has been an adjunct faculty member at the University of Nebraska teaching cross-disciplinary courses in Human Sexuality and Women's Health. She has published articles on women's issues and sexuality education. Dr. Powers-Alexander is a Licensed Mental Health Practitioner, Certified Professional Counselor, a member of AASECT and the American Society of Training and Development and a clinical member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists. Susan worked for 30 years at Planned Parenthood of Nebraska and Council Bluffs, last as Vice President of Education, Training and Grants.

Susan Powers-Alexander, Ph.D.
Consultant and Professional Trainer
510 Leavitt Lane
Lincoln, NE 68510

Lara Riscol, Freelance Journalist

Lara Riscol is a freelance writer who explores public debates about sex and relationships. Published in The Nation, Salon, AlterNet, RH Reality Check and other national media outlets, she's working on a book, Ten Sex Myths That Screw America. Riscol presents on the political, cultural and media contradictions surrounding sex and gender, and is a member of the Society for the Scientific Study of Sexuality and the American Association of Sexuality Educators, Counselors and Therapists.

Lara Riscol
1015 Juniper Avenue
Boulder, CO 80304

Monica Rodriguez, Sexuality Education and Information Council of the United States

Monica Rodriguez is the vice president for education and training at the Sexuality Information and Education Council of the United States (SIECUS). Over the course of her fifteen years at SIECUS, Ms. Rodriguez has provided speeches, workshops, training, resource development, and technical assistance related to HIV prevention and sexuality education to education and health professionals, decision-makers, and parents both domestically and internationally. She is a widely recognized and sought after expert on sexuality education issues.

Monica Rodriguez
SIECUS
90 John St. Suite 704
New York, NY 10038

Lori A. Rolleri, MSW, MPH, The Center for Sexual and Reproductive Health Promotion at ETR Associates

Since 1990, Lori has designed, implemented, and evaluated a variety of reproductive and sexual health curricula and programs for young people, parents, and professionals in the U.S. and Latin America. Currently, Lori is the Director of the Center for Sexual and Reproductive Health Promotion at ETR Associates she oversees multiple national and state training and capacity building projects. She is widely recognized by federal, state and local organizations for her expertise in developing, adapting and disseminating science-based sex and HIV education programs.

Director, The Center for Sexual and Reproductive Health Promotion
ETR Associates
4 Carbonero Way
Scotts Valley, CA 95066

Howard J. Ruppel, MPH, Ed.D., Ph.D., Sexuality Education Consultant

Howard J. Ruppel, MPH, Ed.D., Ph.D. is a sexuality educator, and a clinical sexologist in Mount Vernon, Iowa. He was formerly the Academic Dean of the Institute for Advanced Study of Human Sexuality (2001-2009). He has also served as the Executive Director of AASECT (1996-2000), and SSAS (1988-2000), and he has taught on the adjunct faculty of the School of Social Work at the University of Iowa (1976-2000).

Howard J. Ruppel, MPH, Ed.D., Ph.D.
Mount Vernon, Iowa.
Howard J. Ruppel
608 Fifth Avenue NW
Mount Vernon, IA 52314

John Santelli, MD, MPH, Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University

John Santelli, MD, MPH is the Harriet and Robert H Heilbrunn Professor and Chair of the Heilbrunn Department of Population and Family Health in the Mailman School of Public Health at Columbia University and a Senior Fellow at the Guttmacher Institute. He has conducted research on HIV/STD risk behaviors, programs to prevent STD/HIV/unintended pregnancy, and school-based health centers. He has been a national leader in insuring that adolescents are appropriately included in health research and have access to medically accurate, comprehensive sexuality education.

Columbia University
Mailman School of Public Health
60 Haven Avenue, B-2
New York, NY 10032

Elizabeth Schroeder, EdD, MSW, Answer, Rutgers University

Elizabeth Schroeder, EdD, MSW, is executive director of Answer, a national organization housed at Rutgers University that is dedicated to providing and promoting comprehensive sexuality education to young people and the adults who teach them. An award-winning sexuality educator, consultant and author specializing in the areas of LGBTQ issues, sexuality education pedagogy and curriculum development, Dr. Schroeder has worked with thousands of youth-serving professionals, adolescents and parents in the US and overseas.

Elizabeth Schroeder, EdD, MSW
Answer
Center for Applied Psychology
Rutgers University
41 Gordon Road, Suite C
Piscataway, NJ 08854

Richard M. Siegel, MS, LMHC, CST, AASECT, Sage Institute for Family Development

Richard Siegel is a Florida-licensed mental health counselor, and certified sex therapist, dually-certified by AASECT as a sexuality educator and therapist. He has almost twenty years experience as an educator. Currently the Education Director for Sage Institute for Family Development, Ricky also maintains a private sex therapy practice in Palm Beach. He enjoys a national reputation as a trainer, most recently traveling extensively presenting “The Practice of Sex Therapy” throughout the country and the Caribbean.

Richard M. Siegel, MS, LMHC, CST, AASECT
Director of Continuing Education
Sage Institute for Family Development, Inc.
1010 NW 8th Street
Boynton Beach, FL 33426

Charlene Teaser-Polk, MS, MPH, PhD (c), Saint Louis University

Charlene Teaser-Polk is a PhD candidate and the Research and Evaluation Coordinator of the Midwest Prevention Intervention Center at St. Louis University. She has over 25 years of academic and private consulting experience in HIV/STD prevention and policy research, evaluation, project management, and program/curriculum development. Her work centers on building the capacity of community-based organizations to adapt and deliver effective behavioral interventions to racial and ethnic minority populations.

Charlene Teaser-Polk, MS, MPH, PhD (c)
1283 Oak Court
St. Louis, MO 63112

Susan Frelick Wooley, PhD, CHES, FASHA, FAAHE, American School Health Association

As Executive Director of the American School Health Association, Susan Wooley manages the National office and represents young people’s health concerns. She co-edited Health Is Academic: A Guide to Coordinated School Health Program and Tell Me About AIDS. In her previous employment at CDC/DASH, she oversaw Programs that Works and reviewed all publications by national organizations funded by CDC/DASH. Her degrees are from Case Western Reserve University (BA), University of North Carolina at Greensboro (MEd), and Temple University (PhD).

Susan Wooley, PhD, CHES
Executive Director, American School Health Association
7263 State Route 43, PO Box 708
Kent, OH 44240