

CALL FOR ASSOCIATE EDITORS

International Journal of Transgenderism

Routledge Journals invites nominations and applications for the position of Associate Editor for the scholarly journal International Journal of Transgenderism.

Associate Editors are expected to take on additional responsibilities as compared to an Editorial Board member including:

- the review of submitted papers
- attraction of research in their area of expertise
- mentoring authors as needed

It is expected that Associate Editors will be named in the following fields:

- Health Science
- Social Science
- Humanities

Deadline for nominations or applications is Dec. 1, 2011. Please send replies to Routledge staff at:
Sean.Beppler@TaylorandFrancis.com

TO APPLY

A complete application package will include:

- a curriculum vitae of the candidate
- statement of interest in the position stating a vision for continued expansion of International Journal of Transgenderism

Applicants will be reviewed by current leaders in the transgender and sexuality field, with the selection of Associate Editors expected by February 1, 2012.

TO NOMINATE A COLLEAGUE

If you would like to nominate someone to be considered as a potential Associate Editor of International Journal of Transgenderism, please send the name of the person you are nominating, their email address and brief description of qualifications to Routledge Journals staff at:

Sean.Beppler@TaylorandFrancis.com

MEET THE EDITOR

When: Monday, September 26, 2011 at 3:30pm
Where: Routledge Journals Booth at WPATH

Walter Bockting, Editor of International Journal of Transgenderism and Associate Professor of the Program of Human Sexuality at University of Minnesota will be at the Routledge Journals Booth at the WPATH conference to answer any inquiries regarding manuscript submissions and applications or nominations for Associate Editors.

Also Sean Beppler, Editorial Representative for Routledge Journals at Taylor & Francis will be at the booth during the WPATH conference to take inquiries regarding Applications or Nominations for Associate Editors.

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

The International Journal of Transgenderism is committed to the advancement of knowledge in the areas of: gender dysphoria; improvement in the medical and psychological treatment of transgender individuals; social and legal acceptance of hormonal and surgical sex reassignment; professional and public education on the phenomenon of transgenderism. The journal provides an intellectual forum that stimulates new ways of thinking and understanding various aspects of transgenderism.

ABOUT THE SOCIETY

Members of World Professional Association of Transgender Health (WPATH) receive an online subscription to International Journal of Transgenderism as a benefit of their membership. Associate Editors are not required to be members of WPATH, but should expect to be familiar with WPATH standards and policies.

Visit the Journal's Website at www.tandfonline.com/WIJT