

Editorial announcements

JOURNAL OF EUROPEAN PUBLIC POLICY (JEPP) PRIZES

We are pleased to announce this year's winners of the Annual JEPP prizes for the most downloaded article, the most downloaded Special Issue and the most downloaded article not from a special issue. Each prize winner will receive £200.

In order to make the competition as fair as possible, we leave two full years between the year of assessment and the year of the awards. The prizes awarded this year are therefore for articles published in 2006, based on the number of downloads between January 2007 and December 2008.

The winners are as follows:

Most downloaded Special Issue

*Guest Editor Helene Sjursen, 'What Kind of Power?
European Foreign Policy in Perspective'
Volume 13, Issue 2*

Most downloaded article

*Adrian Hyde-Price, 'Normative power Europe: a realist critique'
Volume 13, Issue 2, pages 217–34*

Most downloaded article not in a Special Issue

*Giandomenico Majone, 'The common sense of European integration'
Volume 13, Issue 5, pages 607–26*

The prize-winning articles and the preface to the prize-winning Special Issue will be freely available online until the end of 2009. The articles can be downloaded from www.informaworld.com/jepp

The next prizes awarded will be for the most frequently downloaded articles and Special Issue from JEPP Volume 14, based on the number of downloads throughout 2008 and 2009 and will be announced next year.

JEPP EDITORIAL BOARD CHANGES

New members

I would like to welcome the following new members to our Editorial Board:

Giacomo Benedetto, Royal Holloway, University of London, UK

Paul Craig, University of Oxford, UK

David Coen, University College, University of London, UK

Geoffrey Dudley, University of The West of England, UK

Burkhard Eberlein, York University, Canada

Rachel Epstein, University of Denver, USA

Mark Kayser, Hertie School of Governance, Berlin, Germany

David Levy, University of Oxford, UK

Ian Manners, Danish Institute for International Studies, Copenhagen, Denmark

Laurence J. O'Toole, University of Georgia, USA

Thomas Risse, Free University of Berlin, Germany

Gwendolyn Sasse, University of Oxford, UK

Sabine Saurugger, Institute d'Etudes Politiques, Grenoble, France

Mark Thatcher, London School of Economics, UK

Robert Thomson, Trinity College Dublin, Ireland

Retiring members

I would also like to thank those members who are retiring from the Board. They have worked hard and long for JEPP and I am extremely grateful for their enthusiastic support and advice. Editing a journal is not always an easy task, but it is made much easier when one has such excellent colleagues on the Board.

Fabio Franchino

Virginie Guiraudon

Emiliano Grossman

Emilie Hafner-Burton

Martin Rhodes

Jeremy Richardson
Summer 2009

HAAS FUND FELLOWSHIP

JEPP was proud to be a sponsor of the EUSA Haas Fund Fellowship in 2009

The EUSA Haas Fund Fellowship Competition is an annual fellowship for graduate student EU-related dissertation research. The Ernst Haas Memorial Fund for EU Studies was launched in June 2003 to honour the memory of Ernst B. Haas (1924–2003). EUSA offers at least one unrestricted fellowship of $2000 to support the dissertation research of any graduate student pursuing an EU-related dissertation topic. For further information on this fund please visit: http://www.eustudies.org/about_prizes.php.