

Hispanic Studies Author and Subject Indexes 1923-2003

Compiled by Ceri Byrne, Ann L. Mackenzie and Graham Whitaker, these volumes catalogue, both by author and by subject, all articles (c.3000) and reviews (c.9000) on Spain, Portugal and Latin America that have appeared in the Bulletin between 1923 and 2003.

- Volume I (forthcoming 2010) is a history and survey, by Ann L. Mckenzie, of the contents, development and influence of the Bulletin of Spanish/Hispanic Studies since its foundation.
- Volume II (published 2008) catalogues by author all articles and reviews published in the Bulletin of Spanish/Hispanic Studies between 1923-2003.
- Volume III (forthcoming 2010) catalogues by subject all articles and reviews published in the Bulletin of Spanish/Hispanic Studies between 1923-2003.

The products of hands-on researches, these three volumes (totalling c.1600 pp.) are indispensable to all scholars interested in Hispanic Studies, and in the eighty-year history of their progress documented through the contents of the Bulletin, 1923-2003. Issued in print and online to all subscribers to the Bulletin of Spanish Studies, these reference-works are among the most comprehensive sources of Hispanic information available.
