Call for Submissions

Saturnino ('Jun') M. Borrás Jr. has been appointed as Editor of The Journal of Peasant Studies (JPS) from Volume 36, (January) 2009. He is actively involved in rural social movements internationally. He will be supported by an Editorial Collective, a new International Advisory Board and new Reviews Section Editors.

The multidisciplinary JPS is one of the leading journals in the field of rural development. It provokes and promotes critical thinking about social structures, institutions, actors and processes of change in and in relation to the rural world.

Grassroots Voices Section

Formerly called Peasants Speak, the Grassroots Voices section has been enlarged and made a regular component, and will feature material written and presented in a less academic style.

The Krishna Bharadwaj and Eric Wolf Prize

A prize of £1,000 is awarded once every two years for an outstanding article published in JPS by a 'young scholar'. All articles, except for Notes and Communications, published in the relevant volumes are eligible.

Submissions Details

All submissions should be sent by email to jps.editorial@gmail.com. For more information please click on the 'Instructions for Authors' link on the journal homepage.
