

The International Planning History Society (IPHS) endeavours to foster the study of planning history worldwide. It seeks to advance scholarship in the fields of urbanism, history, planning and the environment, focusing particularly on cities from the late nineteenth century.

Call for nominations - 2012 IPHS book prizes

At the 2012 IPHS conference in Sao Paulo (Brazil) two prizes will be awarded again: The two most innovative books in planning history written in English and based on original new research. Books must have been published in the previous two calendar years (2010-2011). Books may be written individually or joint-authored. Anthologies and edited works are also welcome, but reprints and "readers" are ineligible.

The prize for each award is $ 250. The prizes will be awarded at the 15th IPHS conference in Sao Paulo in July 2012. Winners will be informed in January 2012 to facilitate participation at the conference. Nominations are invited from scholars and publishers.

Nominations will comprise a 400 word statement, a short CV of the author(s), and 5 copies of the nominated book. (These materials will not be returned). The deadline for receipt of submissions for the next prize is 31 November 2011.

Nomination materials should be sent (if possible earlier) to: Prof. Dr. Dirk Schubert, HafenCity University, 22085 Hamburg, Winterhuder Weg 31, Germany.

Further information about the prize can be obtained from Dirk Schubert (Tel. +49-40-428274513, E-mail: dirk.schubert@hcu-hamburg.de).

Members of the book prize committee are: Helen Meller (University of Nottingham, England), Nihal Perera (Ball State University Muncie, USA), José Luis Sáinz Guerra (Universidad De Valladolid, Spain)
