

Feminist Internationalisms - 23-24 November 2009
Celebrating feminist engagements with international law and politics

Centre for International Governance and Justice Workshop
APCD Lecture Theatre, Hedley Bull Centre at The Australian National University

For more details, please visit: <http://cigj.anu.edu.au/index.php>

Draft Program (revised 9 October 2009)

Program	23 November 2009	APCD Lecture Theatre
900	Registration and coffee in Hedley Bull foyer
1000	Opening remarks and Welcome to Country
1030	Keynote speech	Ann Tickner
	Response	Hilary Charlesworth
	Discussion	Chair: Jindy Pettman
1230	Lunch
1330	Panel One: The state of the discipline Chair: Margaret Thornton Discussants: Gabrielle Simm and Rebecca Monson	Katrina Lee-Koo: Feminist IR in Australia: Contributions, conversations and challenges Discussion Di Otto: A Dangerous Liaison: Feminist Engagement with International Law at Times of Crisis Discussion
1530	Afternoon Tea
1600	Panel One: The state of the discipline (continued)	Judith Gardam: War, Law, Terror: Nothing New for Women Discussion
1700	Close
	Dinner for speakers	tba

Program	24 November 2009	APCD Theatre
900	Coffee
930	Panel Three: Feminist critiques of political economy Chair Joyce Wu	Juanita Elias: Gendered political economy of competitiveness in Southeast Asia Jacqui True: The Political Economy of Violence Against Women: A Feminist International Relations Perspective
1030	Morning tea
1100	Panel Four: New frontiers for feminism Chair: Hiroko Inoue	Nicole George: Feminism and Discourses of Maternalism in the Pacific Islands Susan Harris Rimmer: Sexing the subject of transitional justice
1230	Lunch
1300	Panel Five: Feminist inclusion Chair: Ashleigh Barnes	Penny Andrews Feminist use of international law in the equality jurisprudence of the South African Constitutional Court Bina D'Costa: After the Peace: Reconciliation and Reconstruction with Women
1430	Afternoon tea
1500	Panel Six: Feminist insights into theory and practice Chair: Kim Rubenstein	Anne Orford: Institutionalising Feminism Andrew Byrnes: Exclusion, engagement and inclusion? Reflections on the relevance of feminist critiques to disability-based critiques of international law
1700	Closing remarks	Hilary Charlesworth