Special Issue on Behind the Iron Curtain: Architecture in the Former Communist Bloc, Between Isolation and Fascination Volume 14, Issue 1, February 2009

The Journal of Architecture is published on behalf of the Royal Institute of British Architects (RIBA). It was launched in 1995 and is the longest standing, continuously published, international, refereed publication on architecture in the UK. It has followed a policy of publishing material on every aspect of architectural endeavour including contributions by students, academics and practitioners. The Journal of Architecture is subject to peer review and seeks views relevant to the future of architecture and its reception internationally, encouraging independent critical debate. This special issue examines the architecture of the former Communist Bloc and its impact and meaning both domestically and worldwide.
