DISCOVER PAST BRILLIANCE: UNCOVER THE ARCHIVE

Taylor & Francis is digitising its Mathematics & Statistics Journal Archives!

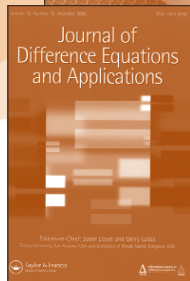

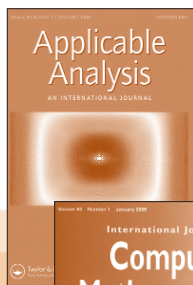

Taylor & Francis is a leading force in mathematics and statistics publishing, having enjoyed substantial growth over the last decade, most recently incorporating books and journals from the acquisitions of Chapman & Hall/CRC Press and Marcel Dekker. Digitised journal archives in the subject areas of mathematics and statistics are now available to buy as an online package from 1996 back to Volume 1, Issue 1.

Benefits of the Online Archive

- Explore 28 Taylor & Francis titles in subjects ranging from algebra to the history of mathematics
- Reduce pressure on storage space
- Provide quick and convenient access to users across your network
- Focus on subject specific journals
- Cross search, access abstracts and references
- Place current research in its historical context
- Supplement your current Taylor & Francis' mathematics & statistics content
- Gain from the high quality scholarship and depth of research of our long-standing journals
- Save money with flexible pricing options available to suit every budget

Highlights

- Journals published on behalf of, or affiliated with, respected societies:

Protecting the Archive

Taylor & Francis is working closely with LOCKSS and Portico to host the archive in perpetuity. An agreement with the Dutch National Library has also been signed to protect the future of our archives.

Archive Content Coverage

Taylor & Francis Group undertakes to make every reasonable effort to digitise its Online Journal Archive. There may be rare instances, however, where the archive is incomplete due to inability to locate individual journal issues.

Mathematics & Statistics Collection

- Allows access to current content from 1997 to the present day, and when combined with the Online Archive provides access to the complete collection of Taylor & Francis journals in this field
- Key titles include: Stochastic Models, International Journal of Mathematical Education in Science & Technology, plus three new journals in 2007 (Journal of Mathematics and the Arts, Journal of Mathematics & Music and Journal of Biological Dynamics)
