About Taylor & Francis

Taylor & Francis Group publishes over 1,500 journals under three imprints: Taylor & Francis, Routledge, and Psychology Press.

Taylor & Francis is

Collaborative – working with researchers, scholarly societies, universities and libraries worldwide to bring knowledge to life. As one of the world's leading publishers of scholarly journals, books, ebooks and reference works our content spans all areas of Humanities, Social Sciences, Science and Technology.

Here to help – from our network of offices in Oxford, Philadelphia, Melbourne, Singapore, Beijing, Tokyo, Stockholm, New Delhi and Johannesburg, Taylor & Francis staff provide local expertise and support to our editors, societies and authors and tailored, efficient customer service to our library customers.

First for authors – we offer support to all Taylor & Francis authors via our dedicated Author Services and Production teams. We use technology to assist our authors from the moment they submit a paper through to publication, providing them with high quality, reliable and rapid production. Our goal is to maximise dissemination of our authors' work, to register their claim to that work and help them gain recognition and esteem from their peers.
